Police Dept. to pay for firearms

Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau announced a program Thursday designed to reduce the number of citizens killed in shootings in our community.

Under the program, Operation PASS, the Police Department will pay a $50 bounty for any firearm, capable of firing an explosive cartridge, which is turned into the Evidence Control Unit, 601 E. Fayette St. In addition, the Department will pay a bounty of $100 to anyone who supplies information which results in the confiscation of an illegal firearm.

Persons knowing of an illegal weapon may tell any policeman or call 752-PASS (People Against Senseless Shooting). If you have a gun; contact any policeman, he will even provide transportation so that you may turn the weapon in and collect the bounty.

All information will be held in complete confidence.
