

anything therein contained, he may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence for his defence, and if verdict be given for him, or the plaintiff be non-suited or discontinued, he shall recover treble costs; and if the plaintiff be unable to satisfy them, the attorney who brought or prosecuted the suit shall pay them, unless the plaintiff shall give security approved by the Court for such costs.

Ibid. sec. 25.

25. Each trustee of the almshouse of Montgomery county shall be entitled to three dollars a day for each day he shall attend to the duties of his office, and five cents for every mile he shall necessarily travel from his place of residence to their place of meeting, but no mileage in returning.

BARNESVILLE.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 1.

26. That the citizens of the Town of Barnesville, in Montgomery county, be and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Barnesville," with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in Court of law or equity, and may have and use a corporate seal.

Ibid. sec. 2.

27. That the corporate limits of the town shall be as follows: Commencing near a large oak tree standing on the east side of the public road leading from Barnesville to Barnesville Station, and running in a northeasterly direction with the northern boundary of the property of John E. Knott to the southeast corner of a lot owned by Dr. J. H. Stonestreet; thence north following the eastern boundary of said Stonestreet's lot, the lot of the L. I. Hays estate and the lot of Thomas Story to the main street of Barnesville; thence with the south side of said street to a point opposite the eastern line of the schoolhouse lot; thence crossing said main street and following the eastern and northern line of said schoolhouse lot to the public road leading from Barnesville to Conners; thence with eastern side of said road to northwest corner of Fred P. Hays' woods field; thence in a straight line crossing said road, and through the lands of Hilton brothers and others to the southeast corner of a field belonging to the heirs of Major B. S. White; thence following line of said field westerly to the mountain road; thence crossing said road and through the lands of Mr. J. W. Brown in a straight line to the northeast corner of B. F. Roberson's lot; thence following northern lines of said Roberson's lot, the M. E. Church lot and Maurice O'Neil's lot to northwest corner of said O'Neil's lot; thence south to the public road leading to Dickerson; thence crossing said road and running southwesterly to northwest corner of Charles R. Darby's land; thence following north