Men's club helps others

By Georgianna Moody

"Firmare' Social Club," a new organization in Baltimore, consist of eleven young men. These young men organized because they felt there was a need for improving the quality of life in the Baltimore Inner-City area, hospitals, mental institutions and correctional institutions.

Firmare' believes the clock is now at the hour of midnight and people must now take the time to prepare for the better day that is about to begin. To date members have given Christmas parties for children in Luther ad Provident Hospitals and a dance to thank the many people who have supported them during the past year.

Members of the group are James Adams, Glendin Augins, Hilton Bostick, Stanford Carter, Ronald Covington, Warren Covington, Charles Linthicum, Joshua Matthews, Pierre Moody, Berkley Tyler and Frank Williams.

Happy birthday wishes to: Mrs. Delores Duckett, Mrs. Anna Mosly, Mr. Johnnie Perry.

Get well wishes to: Little Miss Duckett, Irma Covington, Velaida Taylor.

. . Thought for Today: Blessed are those who forget, for they thus surmount even their mistakes.

Friedrick Wilhelm Nietzsche.

Council A to observe anniversary

On Friday, Jan. 17, Urban Services Council "A" will sponsor its 6th anniversary at the Central Social Hall, located 901 E. Eager St. The time is 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The purpose of this special occasion is to demonstrate the goals and accomplishments of Council "A"to itscommunity residents and to the public at large.

Other Urban Services programs will be participating and the public is cordially invited to attend.

For more information, contact Council "A": at 563-3838.

Yoga-millinery courses at YWCA

Yoga and millinery classes to are now being offered at the YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association), 1912 Madison Ave.

Hatha Yoga, a science of physical training, teaches participants to relax and improve the muscle tone of the body. Yoga devotees claim it has helped them stop using tranquillizers and reduce the amount of fatty and sweet foods desired, and even reduce the frequency of smoking and drinking.

Taught by Mrs. L. Budelis, slim young female practitioner, beginner and advanced classes are on Thursdays from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Jan. 30 to April 3. Cost is $20 for ten sessions.

Millinery classes in designing and creating hats are conducted by Mrs. L. Williams on Tuesdays between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. for beginning to advanced students, $18 for eight sessions.

In addition, a $5 yearly YWCA membership is required. For information and to register, the number to call is 669-1681.

Yule tree pickup

The Sanitation Division, Baltimore City Department of Public Works, has a convenient pickup plan for your old, droopy, worn-out Christmas trees after the holidays.

City householders are asked to place Christmas trees with mixed refuse on their regular collection day either Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Jan. 14, 15, 16.

PLEASE patronize AFRO advertisers. The welcome your support.
