

reasonable and timely notice to his employer, to be fixed by the terms of this contract, of any accident which may entitle him to the benefit of such insurance; and that he shall submit himself to medical examination as required by the employer at the employer's expense.

SEC. 8. The contract may provide that the premium payable by the employees shall be deducted from their wages.

An employer who shall wilfully and feloniously appropriate the amounts so deducted from the wages to any use other than the payment of insurance premium as stipulated in the contract, shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be punished accordingly.

SEC. 9. The contract between the employer and employee may provide that the insurance premiums shall be paid into the hands of a treasurer to be elected or appointed by the employees or by the employer and the employees in such manner and under such voting arrangement as the contract may specify.

The payment of the premiums to the treasurer shall relieve the employer, and the penalty above prescribed for misappropriation of the funds required to be applied to insurance shall apply to such treasurer.

SEC. 10. In case of non-payment of the premiums within one month after the same are payable, the insurance company shall within two months after the expiration of such month send notice of such default by mail to the insured and to the Insurance Commissioner of the State.

The insurance policy or contract between the employer and employee may specify a shorter period than the one herein provided for.

Until the required notice shall have been sent, the policy shall not be forfeited for non-payment of the premium.

SEC. 11. The employer may also advance the premiums of insurance for such number of employees and at such rates as may be agreed upon between him and the insurance company, and may thereupon be supplied by the insurance company with blank policies to be filled in by him with name of any beneficiary under the provisions of this act, and to be executed by him as agent of such company, and he may thereupon reimburse himself for the amounts payable by the employee by deducting the same from the wages of such employee.

SEC. 12. Such contract may provide that upon termination of his employment from any cause whatever the employee and his dependent shall cease to be entitled to the benefits of such
