request an opinion regarding the right of the police commissioner to retain private counsel to represent himself and other police officers who may be called to testify before the senate committee investigating surveillance of private citizens.

"We are concerned because it is reported that public funds will be used to pay the cost.

REACTION

Sen. Clarence M. Mitchell III, (D-38), who has been object of police surveillance said, "I think this is consistent with the role that Mr. Russell has played in the past by allowing himself to be used by those who seek to suppress the aspirations of the black community.

Russell himself has allegedly been the object of police surveillance ordered by Pomerleau. I think that this could possibly have the appearance of his being intimidated in serving as counsel. • • •

Del. Tr... Bailey, (D-40) observed, "I think it is because Pomerleau thinks that Russell is friendly with all the people involved, that he hired him.

"However, it may be a conflict of interest since Russell was City Solicitor during the time alleged spying was being done. He may have some inside knowledge about the entire matter as the mayor's legal representative."

Reference was to reports of I.S.D. investigations that were reportedly sent to the mayor. • • •

Sen. Clarence W. Blount (D-41), told the AFRO: — "I am not going to be critical. In this case, it seems to me that Pomerleau wanted the best lawyer he could find and George Russell is one of the best in Md."

Asked why Russell would defend a man who recently had him watched, Sen. Blount said, "Apparently he doesn't think it's important. He looks upon taking this kind of play as adding to his luster as a member of the practicing bar."

Other black delegates also refrained from criticizing Russell. One of them, Del. Hattie N. Harrison, (D-45) laughed, "I think it's great. Pomerleau knows a good legal attorney when he sees one, when you are out on a limb, you go for the best."

Del. Larry Young, (D-38) added: — "I think we have to first credit the man with being at the top of his profession in the city. I'm glad Pomerleau chose somebody who is a resident on the 38th district."

Del. Isaiah "Ike" Dixon, (D-38), stated, "I think George Russell is running true to form because he said what the commissioner had done was in the best interest of the city."

Late Thursday, a reliable source told the AFRO:

"George Russell may have a conflict of interest because as City Solicitor he may have seen the reports that were sent to the mayor's office.

"In a regular court of law, he would be called as a witness and he wouldn't be able to defend the man. Whether this would stand in the senate committee, is not clear at this moment."

School Board approves Scott's 22-point plan

By Portia Badham

The School Board approved last night Commissioner W. Eugene Scott's plan to end violence and disorder in the Baltimore City public schools.

The board voted for 21 of the plan's 22 proposals. The proposal that would require regional superintendents and administrations, other than principals to spend one day a semester in the classroom, was rejected.

It was pointed out that administrators should not be limited to the amount of time spent in the schools. And that some administrators do not have the teaching background to handle a classroom situation.

The plan originally contained 26 points drawn up by Scott after hearings he conducted on 10 junior high schools last fall.

However, the ad hoc committee on violence and disorder eliminated four points during a closed session before the 7 p.m. meeting at Coldstream Park Elementary, 1400 Exeter Hall Ave.

Members of the committee are David E. Sloan, Mrs. Sheila Sachs and Howard E. Marshall.

Excluded from the plan was vocational education extended to junior high schools, monitoring of regional office staffs by the Personal and Credentials Committee and higher wages for teachers in the inner-city.

Also deleted was the request that the Baltimore branch NAACP state its reasons for filing suit against the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mrs. Enolia McMillan, NAACP president, stated that the suit was filed because of excessive segregation in the schools.

She said, "Segregation means inequality. It is not our job to tell HEW what to do, that is your position. But we will check to see what happens to our kids in school."

Board members present were Grover L. McCrea, David E. Sloan, Howard E. Marshall, Mrs. Sheila Sachs, Oscar Heim, Robert Schaefer, Dr. Scott and Norman P. Ramsey, president.

Dr. Beryl Williams was unanimously voted as the new vice president of the board. She replaces James Griffin whose term expired in December.

Jilted man shoots former sweetheart, commits suicide

A 37-year-old man, apparently jilted by his former sweetheart, shot himself dead minutes after he allegedly tried to take the life of the woman, according to Baltimore County police.

Sgt. Dennis M. Klein, a county policeman, told his fellow officers he witnessed the suicide from a distance of only 100 feet but he was too late to save Ronald W. Lindsay, 37, 3300 block Garrison Blvd.

In satisfactory condition at the Baltimore County General Hospital is Mrs. Jean Carter, 38, 6700 block Townbrook Dr., who suffered a superficial gunshot of the left earlobe.

County Police Information Director John A. Metzger told the AFRO Wednesday Sgt. Klein who was on an unrelated investigation duty heard what he thought was a gunshot at about 12:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Police said Sgt. Klein turned into the 6700 block Townbrook Dr., to investigate the sound and observed a man walking from the front part of a car to the driver's side.

He is quoted as stating: "About 100 feet from the car, I jumped out of my car. But before I could say anything, the man looked at me, slowly raised the gun to his head and pulled the trigger."

Police claim the sergeant then went to the car where he observed a woman, Mrs. Carter lying on the floor of the car. She was bleeding from the ear and the neck.

Police also found bullet holes in the windshield of the car in the direction of the driver's seat.

Director Metzger told the AFRO the suicide victim and Mrs. Carter were former sweethearts and that an argument erupted when the man went to visit the woman.

Police state a .38 caliber revolver was found near the body of Mr. Lindsay.

2 children perish in fire

Two children died from smoke inhalation when a two-alarm fire swept through their two-story apartment in the 1400 block North Gay St. early this morning (Friday).

Rodney Grisette, 9, and Dwyane Grisette, 7, were both pronounced dead on arrival at the Johns Hopkins Hospital shortly before 1 a.m., according to Eastern District police.

Treated for shock were the children's mother, Mrs. Alberta Grisette, and her four surviving children, Debora, 15, William, Evelyn and Wallace.

Firefighters are still investigating the cause of the fire.

Tucker Dearing confined to hospital

Tucker R. Dearing, veteran civil rights attorney was admitted Thursday in Intensive care at Loch Raven Veterans Hospital.

This morning (Friday) his condition is considered serious.

Frazier back in; Morgan cager's play

Morgan State College basketball and wrestling teams left at 8 p.m. Thursday for engagements in North carolina following the temporary reinstatement of Nat Frazier, head coach of the college's basketball team.

The defending college division cage champions had forfeited two games last week in protest over the suspension of their coach. Interim President Thomas Fraser took the action on recommendation of Athletic Director Earl Banks.

It followed complaints that Frazier had violated collegiate rules during an alleged encounter with an official at the Morgan-Brockport, game in N.Y.

A college statement said Frazier's suspension had been lifted "pending further consideration and final determination by the college."

The team made the bus trip late Thursday afternoon with Tom Morris, assistant football coach in charge. Frazier left today (Friday) to join them.

The college's basketball team meets North Carolina Central in Durham, N.C. while the wrestling team takes on North Carolina A and T tonight (Friday).
