IT'S FOUNDER'S THE BIG SHOW MONTH... OF 1975

OUR ONCE-A-YEAR SPECTACULAR OF VALUES AND SAVINGS

Pantry Pride

YOU WIN. BECAUSE WE DON'T PLAY GAMES

NO WILTED LETTUCE GAME HERE

Our fresh fruits and vegetables are top of the crop . . . rushed from the finest growing areas to our stores, with all their garden goodness intact.

The show opened in 1933 with our Founder's first "self-service" market. (The word "Supermarket" hadn't been invented yet.) And his show has been a sellout ever since it hit the stage. Now, each year, we honor our Founder by honoring you— with a store full of money-saving values. It's our biggest sale of the year. Come shop and see!

CONSUMER CORNER

IT ISN'T ALWAYS TRUE

Consumer advisors, including me, often remind you to cook from scratch and save. The cost of cooking pouches and butter added to your vegetables in advance is pretty high.

But many convenience foods are good buys. If that doesn't add up, remember that so called convenience foods take full advantage of low waste- mass production-distribution efficiencies.

WHEN LAZINESS PAYS

Fresh produce is a wonderful necessity but the huge spoilage costs that go with its distribution make some frozens bargains; french fries, limas, green beans, asparagus and brussel sprouts - peas and spinach are even better examples, dramatic savings. If it wins greater consumer acceptance, frozen meat may offer similar savings in the years ahead. Right now, you can't trade time for money on fish sticks or crab cakes. Even some of the skillet dinners to which you add ground beef can't be beat on price by scratch cooking - taste and home goodness are something else again.
