SEC. 4. The officers of said town shall be a Mayor and six Councilmen, one from each ward and two at large, elected by ballot and such appointive officers as are hereinafter designated, and each officer may continue to hold office till his successor is qualified. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each officer shall take an oath that he will diligently and faithfully discharge all the duties of his office without favor, partiality or prejudice, and said oath shall be filed among the records of the town.

SEC. 5. At the first election of officers under this charter the qualified voters of the town shall elect a Mayor to serve for a term of two years and shall also elect two councilmen-at-large; and the qualified voters of each ward shall elect one councilman; of these six councilmen two shall serve for a term of three years, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of one year. At their first meeting the Council shall designate the term to be served by each councilman, the longer terms being assigned to those who received the higher majority at election. At each successive annual election, the qualified voters of each ward in which there is a vacancy shall elect a councilman to serve for three years; at each alternate annual election the qualified voters of the town shall elect a Mayor to serve for a term of two years; and at the expiration of the term of either of the councilmen-at-large they shall also elect his successor to serve for a term of three years. The qualifications for voters, Mayor and councilmen shall be the same as are prescribed by voters by the laws of the State. The Mayor must continue to reside in said town and each councilman in his respective ward during their term of office, and they shall receive no compensation for their services, except that the Mayor shall receive the fees hereinafter allowed.

SEC. 6. The Council shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June of each year as often thereafter as may be necessary in the discharge of the duties of their office not less than once in every month. A majority shall form a quorum for the transaction of busi-
