

(B) Class C Shares:—These shares are instalment shares, which are to be paid for at one dollar per share per week. They are subject to such regulations as to their sale, purchase, issuance and conversion, together with the interest and profit they bear, as shall be set out in the by-laws of the company. When class "C" shares have been paid in to their par value of $50.00 each, they may be converted into class "B" shares, as provided by the by-laws of the company.

Nothing however herein contained in the authority to issue class "B" and class "C" investments and savings shares, shall be construed as increasing the capital stock of this company, and said class B and C investment and savings shares shall not, for any purposes, be considered or taken to be any part of the capital stock of the company.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be in derogation of the powers of said company under its certificate of incorporation, but shall be supplemental thereto.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1912.
