ports that Mr. Quille then pulled an address or notebook out of his pocket and wrote his name in it.

The officer states that Mr. Quille then started waving the book in his (Bernhardt's) face saying, "You have no right to be here, so get away."

The officer's report states that a large crowd gathered "watching the Quille scream at me".

He states that he told Mr. Quille at that point that he was being arrested for disorderly conduct.

Officer Bernhardt reports that Mr. Quille replied using abusive language and name calling, "You don't have the authority to arrest me."

Mr. Quille is reported as calling his daughter and son-in-law and a parking lot attendant to come over to him.

He is quoted by the officer as saying, "Call the police commissioner and tell him to get his a-- down to Central District immediately."

Officer Bernhardt quoted Mr. Quille as also ordering his son-in-law to call "my colonel and have him get here at once."

The report quotes Mr. Quille as also saying to his daughter "to call Judge Russell and have him go to Central."

The officer states in his report that he was not abusive or discourteous to Mr. Quille at any time.

Mr. Quille rates high as a civic and community figure.

In 1966, Mr. Quille owned and operated 17 parking lots.

He has served as president of the Baltimore Parking Association, Inc.

As of 1966, Mr. Quille had parking lots located at 1714 N. Charles St., Hopkins Plaza and Pratt St., Pier 1, Pier 2, Pier 6; Lombard and Gay (five stories,) Lombard and Water, Fayette and Frederick, Lombard and Market, Lombard and Fallsway, Harrison and Fayette, St. Paul and 33rd, and Mott and Sterling.

In 1970, Mr. Quille was honored by the Metropolitan Civic Association, Inc.

The printed program quotes him as having business interests in a fuel oil company, night club, real estate developments, the Mutual Investment Corporation and Central Dodge automobile agency.

Mr. Quille is described as a "quiet spoken gentleman."

He is also known to make many charity contributions.

In 1966, he donated $5,000 as a personal gift to the Provident Hospital Development Program.

He has also contributed more than $3,000 to be used for bail bonds at one time, he described himself "violent man" who fights the equality war "nonviolently from his pocket."

lims live on — under leadership of his fifth-born son!

Thousands of Muhammad's followers honored the late leader of the Nation of Islam Wednesday and pledged their loyalty to the son he chose to succeed him as spiritual leader of the black muslims.

Muslim leaders, heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali and ministers of temples across the nation spoke reverently of the self-styled "Messenger of Allah" and called on his followers to honor his wish that his fifth-born son, Wallace Muhammad take over as spiritual leader.

When Ali pledged, "I will be faithful and loyal to the Honorable Wallace D. Muhammad and I'm sure everyone who feels the same would be happy to stand up now," the crowd arose and cheered.

"Allah himself will visit Brother Wallace Muhammad," Ali said. Again the Nation of Islam cheered.

Beneath photographs of Muhammad and slogans representing the teaching of the man who led them for more than 40 years, the Muslims, torn apart in the 1960s by the defection and later assassination of Malcolm X, put on a display of unity and peace.

"Elijah is not 137 pounds of flesh and blood, but a spirit of morality," Wallace Muhammad said. He said the spirit would live on along with his father's ideals and principles.

Women, "Muslim Girl Trainees," clad in long, white dresses and white hats, sat apart from their male counterparts. "Fruit of Islam" guards, dressed in blue, military-like uniforms.

Ushers stood at attention between aisles and a half-dozen guards watched over the speaker's podium.

Before entering, the men and the women were directed to separate entrances and searched carefully, but politely, for weapons and matches.

The Nation of Islam prohibits use of tobacco, and smokers had their matches confiscated.

he was listed at a salary of $14,000.

When the AFRO sought further information on Mr. Holley's tenure, Roman Hankewycz, an assistant public relations official, said he had no permission to release anything.

He quoted Dr. Haywood Harrison, vice-president in charge of public relations, as saying, "No comment".

Holley is a Baltimorean and attended Douglass High School. He was at one time associated with North Carolina College in Durham.

city's Rapid Transit Program follows the pattern established in other American cities.

He said only six per cent of the 81 contracts negotiated involve non-white businessmen, or $375,000 out of more than $13 million awarded.

Even in the ghetto, blacks have received only $87,000 out of $1.5 million contracts, he said.

Cong. Mitchell said, "Baltimore cannot be a unified city . . . until such time as all citizens share equally in the decision making process, until all are given an equal opportunity to share in the economic development of the city.

"The Rapid Transit Program to date stands as a monumental negation of citizen participation and black business inclusion in the system," he said.

-Population

now 53.6 per cent nonwhite.

There are more nonwhites than whites under 18 years of age, while the reverse is true for that part of the population over 18.

Of these residents over age 60, the white population far exceeds the nonwhite.

Population change is determined by two factors, namely, the difference between the number of births and the number of deaths, and the migration of people into and out of the city.

From the birth and death certificates filed in the Maryland State Bureau of Vital Records, it has been determined there were approximately 1,000 more resident births than resident deaths between July, 1973 and June, 1974.

The increase in the city's population must be matched against an estimated 15,890 residents who were lost as a result of migration out of the city.

Pascal investigates AA County cross burnings

(BULLETIN)

Del. Lloyal Randolph, chairman of the Legislative Black Caucus and Del. Troy Brailey, vice chairman, Baltimore city delegation met Thursday afternoon with Robert Pascal, Anne Arundel County executive to discuss the cross burnings and the fire bombing in the Pasadena and Glen Burnie sections of Anne Arundel County.

Dels. Randolph and Brailey said that Mr. Pascal was very concerned over the cross burnings and the fire bombings. They stated that Mr. Pascal was also meeting with the county's Chief of Police and the chief of the Fire Department, later Thursday afternoon to get a complete up to date report on the situation in the troubled areas.

Mr. Pascal told the delegates that the county has come too far for this kind of thing and that he would not tolerate it.

He futher stated that he will issue a public statement today (Friday) reassuring the blacks and the community that he has pulled out all of the stops to make sure this kind of action ceases and the persons causing the problems are apprehended.

Mr. Pascal said that the FBI has been called in as well as the Maryland State Police.

He said he has assigned Mr. Robert Nealy, executive secretary of the Anne Arundel County Human Relations Commission to work full time with the people in the troubled community.

Mr. Pascal also stated that he would visit the areas in person.

Mr. Nealy admitted that some parts of the troubled area used to be a stronghold for the Ku Klux Klan and he questioned whether the TV show entitled "The FBI versus the Ku Klux Klan" had anything to do with the recent cross burnings.

What Do Many Doctors Use When They Suffer Pain And Itch Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues?
Exclusive formula gives prompt, temporary relief from such pain and itch in many cases. Helps shrink swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues due to inflammation.
News about a most effective medication comes from a recent survey of doctors. Asked what they, themselves, use to relieve such painful symptoms, many of the doctors reporting named the particular medication they either use themselves or in their office practice.
This medication gives prompt relief for hours in many cases from pain and itching of hemorrhoidal tissues. And it actually helps shrink swelling of such tissues caused by infection. Tests by doctors showed this to be true.
The medication used was Preparation H®—the same exclusive formula you can buy at any drug counter without a prescription. Try doctor-tested Preparation H. There's no other formula like it. At drug counters everywhere. Ointment or suppositories.

EQUITABLE OFFERS FREE CHECKING.
(BUT, SOME OF OUR CUSTOMERS MAY NOT WANT IT.)

We have Free Checking. It's a good deal. For everyone. But some of our customers won't want it. Why? Because they already enjoy the money-saving advantages of our E+ Club. And they may not choose to switch. Which is best for you? Now you have your choice—Free Checking or the E+ Club.

The Benefits of Free Checking
Suppose you write lots of checks—25, 30, 40 checks a month—at 10¢ a check. Those dimes can add up. So Free Checking may make sense for you.

Because free checking means no more monthly service charges. And no more 10¢ a check. All you need to qualify is as little as $200 in any Equitable personal savings account. (Since the minimum opening deposit on Golden Statement E, EI or EII is $500, you've met the requirement if you already have one of those accounts.)

The Benefits of E+ Club
Perhaps you prefer remaining in the E+ Club. If you took advantage of your options, the E+ Club may have already saved you a bundle. For example, your free safe deposit box is worth about $7.50 a year.

Free check imprinting (at $3.35 per order) may have saved you another $3.35 or more. Perhaps you used your free travelers checks (at $1 per $100 worth), or money orders—or the 1% savings on your auto or other consumer loan. Add them up.

(If you'd like to join now, all you need is an E+ checking account, savings account, and either Check Command or your Equitable BankAmericard.

In either case, the savings are real.

Save as little as $200 to get free checking
Like most other major banks, Equitable requires a minimum balance in your personal savings account. Unlike all the others, however, Equitable only asks that you maintain a balance of at least $200 in ANY savings account—passbook or statement savings. And as long as that balance is maintained, you can write all the checks you want—FREE.

Earn from 4½% to 6½% on your savings
Just check the chart to see how much your savings account can earn for you.

No other bank in Maryland offers 24 hour banking to every checking account customer.
Only at Equitable, every personal checking customer qualifies for full use of our 24 Hour Tellers.

That means round the clock convenience for most of your banking needs, for making deposits, paying your bills, and to get the cash you need when you need it. Not only during banker's hours. But during people's hours, too. All day. All night. Every day. And there's nothing optional about our 24 Hour Tellers. You get it right away.

Whichever checking you choose is yours for the asking
Which plan is right for you? The choice is yours. All you have to do is visit your Equitable Trust office. We'll be happy to set up your account.

Mr. Allen denies bid for mayor

Milton B. Allen, former Baltimore city state's attorney, has refuted rumors rife in the city he is planning to run for mayor of Baltiomore.

He also denied knowledge of a group which calls its self Baltimore citizens trying to draft him for the position.

"I don't know anything about that," Mr. Allen told the AFRO.

A release issued by the group and signed by Irvin Conway, 522 Gold St., states "A group of Baltimore Citizens have come together to form a committee to draft Allen for Mayor of Baltimore City.

"The group will be called Citizens to Draft Milton Allen to be Mayor of Baltimore. Mr. Allen has been invited to attend our first meeting on Monday, March 3, 7:30 p.m. at Saint Peter Claver's Hall, Carey and Pressiman Streets."

Mr. Allen comments further, "I guess anybody can draft anybody they want, but I have not talked to anybody. I don't know why they think highly of me as their choice."

Mr. Allen said he would like to meet the mayor and discuss with him his position on the issue.

"I am a lawyer and I want to practice my law. I am happy with my job," he added.

Meanwhile, community-wide movement to draft Norman V. A. Reeves for City Council was initiated at a press conference held at the Heritage United Church of Christ.

The Concerned Citizens for Black Political Progress, co-chaired by James M. Griffin and Rev. Wendell Phillips, represented a cross-section of interests and neighborhoods within the 5th Councilmanic District.

Man falls to death in Sutton Place

Police report the broken body of a 26-year-old man was found near the Sutton Place swimming pool Wednesday night after he sustained a fall from a 14th floor apartment there.

Police state the dead man, Lawrence J. Turner, white, 1600 block Park Ave., was found on his back, about 8:46 p.m. bleeding from the back of his head and the twisted right leg appeared to be broken.

There were no signs of life.

The report states Turner was wearing blue jeans, a light colored shirt and was barefooted.

Police records do not show a cause of death but Officer T. Scherrer of Central District term the incident a "questionable death".

Police report they were told by a resident of the 14th floor, Ms. Ora Reed, 26, that Turner was in her apartment that evening.

During her absence from 1 p.m. to 7:45 p.m., she told police, she did not know what happened.

However, she said when she returned home, she found a chain across inside the door.

She told police about 8 p.m. a maintenance men went to remove the chain but it was off and she saw Turner standing in her doorway.

Ms. Reed is quoted by police as saying she went down to a 12th floor apartment to get her coat and purse and returning to her apartment, found Turner missing.

She said she checked her apartment and when she saw the window open, looked out and noticed Turner on the ground 14 floors below.

Ms. Reed told the AFRO, "I can't really say what happened. I had gone downstairs and was not in my apartment at the time.

"It happened so fast. I was gone for about five minutes" Ms. Reed told the AFRO she is a state employee.
