Banneker Optimist Club holds awards banquet

By Liz Williams
(AFRO Columnist)

Catonsville News

This writer has been encouraged to continue to write this column because of the kind remarks made by many AFRO readers and the residents of the Catonsville community. I have decided that this will be my small contribution to this group of very fine people.

The Banneker Optimist Club held its second annual Football Awards Banquet in the Banneker Annex gymnasium, recently, to honor 80 youths who participated in the Banneker Colimate's 1974 Football Program.

Each youngster was given a trophy and special awards were given to the most valuable players on each of the three teams. David Coleman (13-15 team), Byron Randall (11-13 team), and Michael Bond (9-11 team). Some 17 parents received awards. These parents gave support and assistance to the football program. Mrs. Barbara Anderson and Mrs. Charlotte Scott received the Optimist Creed Plaque which is a special award.

The master of ceremonies was Wayne Randall, the president of the Banneker Optimist. Speakers for the evening were: Charles Diggs (Banneker Football Commissioner), Coach Gary Cooper, assistant Coach Paul Brown and the director of the Banneker Recreation Center, Greg Oyle. Awards were given to Paul Brown, Andre Clark, Arnem Ebb, and William Stuart who gave assistance to the coaches.

The cabaret committee headed by Gary Cooper, is putting forth its effort to have a full house for their affair. (Contact Mr. Cooper at 578-9351). Let all of us in the community help this fine group in whatever way that we can. They are really doing an excellent job in helping the youth in our community. We must stick together, friends.

The upcoming Oratorical contest is still open for participants. Anyone who wants to enter a youth in [illegible] contact Charles Diggs (747-1833) or James Robinson (744-3327).

Recently the Morning Star Chorale of the Morning Star Baptist Church, here in Catonsville, honored the Rev. Jentry McDonald. Many of us remember the Rev. Mr. Gentry from Douglass High School.

The affair was given in the form of a recognition banquet. It was held at a hall on Dogwood Rd. before a capacity gathering of more than 200 guests.

The Chorales, during retiring aside time from their fourth anniversary, led the church congregation in honoring their pastor, for more than sixteen years of faithful and dedicated service.

Many members of our community were in attendance, also, to show their appreciation to the Rev. Mr. McDonald for the services that he has rendered to this community.

Get well cards to Cornelius Simpson, Room 718 St. Agnes Hospital. Mr. Simpson attends St. Mark's Catholic Church and is one of the caretakers at the school and church. He is also a member of the Golden Age Group. Hope you are sending get better cards to Mrs. Hazel Diggs of the Optimists Mrs. group.

When I first began this column, I told you the folks in this community have, and still are making fine contributions in all areas — education, business, social work, engineering, designing, and in other areas. Name it and you can find it here.

Beginning next week, I will write about people on the move. There are so many people on the move out here, both young, middle-age, a little over middle age (the writer) and the senior citizens. If you know about these persons, kindly write a resume and send it to me. You may even send me a resume about yourself (Don't be modest).

At my request, I have already received resumes from two individuals and from one family. All are on the move and are doing well, in addition to giving service to their community and churches.

Next week, I will tell you about the Head Start Programs — Salem Lutheran and Morning Star Baptist.

Send sympathy cards to John Brown, a member of the Steward Board of Grace AME Church. He recently lost his sister, Mrs. Baker.

James Pendleton, newly appointed member of the Board of Recreation (Baltimore County) and Parks, spoke at the Wednesday Luncheon of the Golden Age Group.

The American Legion Post 233 is having its annual cabaret at the Catonsville Armory on Sunday, March 15.

Friendship Is a Smile
La Verne P. Larson
(Friendship Thoughts)

A happy friendly smile
Is a tonic you will find,
If you see one or you wear one
You can leave your cares behind.
It can work a bit of magic everywhere you go.
It's like a seed of hapiness
That always seems to grow,
You can give away a smile
And the minute that you do,
Another heart will gladly
Send one back to you.
Smiles are like sunbeams
Bringing warmth and special cheer,
To all the folks around us
Through every passing year.
