

1904. art. 43, sec. 133. 1902, ch. 69, sec. 55 A.

158. No person shall kill for human food or shall carry or offer to any butcher or at any slaughter house to be killed for human food any female animal within thirty days before the time for the delivery of its young or within thirty days thereafter, or any animal that is so far disabled by sickness as to be unable to walk, or any animal known to said person by reason of disease or injury to be unfit for human food; and whenever any of said animals shall be found at any place where animals are usually killed for human food, the burden of proving that such animal was not intended for human food shall rest on the party charged, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Ibid. sec. 134. 1904, ch. 378, sec. 81 B.

159. No person, firm or corporation engaged in making, manufacturing, compounding and selling extracts, essences or other fluids commonly used for the purpose of flavoring articles of food or drink shall use or employ, or permit to be used or employed by his, their or its agents or employes, the making, manufacture or compounding of such flavoring extracts, essences or fluids any methyl, or wood alcohol; nor shall any person, firm or corporation, his, their or its agents or employes, sell, or offer for sale at wholesale or retail, any flavoring extract, essence or other fluid commonly used for flavoring articles of food or drink when the same contains any methyl, or wood alcohol; and any person, firm or corporation, his, their or its agents, employes or officers, violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by not less than three months nor more than twelve months' imprisonment, or by both, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid. sec. 135. 1904, ch. 653, sec. 51 A.

160. No person, firm, or corporate body shall manufacture for sale, sell or deliver, or have in his, her or their possession, with intent to sell or deliver, any vinegar not in compliance with the provisions of sections 160 and 161. No vinegar shall be marked, branded, sold or exposed for sale as apple or cider vinegar which is not the legitimate product of pure apple juice and containing at least one and one-half per cent. of solids, and all vinegar shall contain not less than three and one-half per cent., by weight of absolute acetic acid, except when mixed with other articles of food.

Ibid. sec. 136. 1904, ch. 653, sec. 51 B.

161. No person, firm or corporate body shall manufacture for sale, offer for sale, or have in his, her or their possession with intent to sell, or offer for sale, any vinegar found upon proper test to contain ingredients injurious to health.
