

said sections to the justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction in the locality where such illegal employment or other violations of said sections occur, and which justices of the peace shall have full authority to try and determine all cases arising under said sections. Inspectors authorized by said sections, and the attendance officers of the public schools may require that the employment permits and lists provided for in said sections of minors employed in any such office, establishment or business, shall be produced for their inspection. They shall also be authorized to require a birth certificate or other record evidence of the date of birth of any child, which they have reason to believe is being employed contrary to the provisions of said section, to be produced by either parents, guardian or custodian of said child, and in the absence of such record evidence of the date of birth of such child, they may require an affidavit from either parent, guardian or custodian of such child as to its age, name, place and date of birth.

1906, ch. 192, sec. 11.

11. The chief of the Maryland bureau of statistics and information is hereby authorized to appoint six inspectors to carry out the provisions of sections 4 to 13 at a compensation not exceeding nine hundred ($900) dollars each per annum; they shall also be allowed their actual expenses when away from the city of Baltimore in the business of their office; they shall be attached to and be part of the Maryland bureau of statistics and information, and be subject to the order of the chief of said bureau, whose duty it shall be to see that the provisions of said sections are enforced.

1906, ch. 192, sec. 12.

12. Sections 4 to 13 shall not include farm labor.

1906, ch. 192, sec. 13.

13. The sum of eight thousand ($8,000) dollars per annum is hereby appropriated to carry out the provisions of sections 4 to 13.