2,500 friends bid Bishop Gossman farewell

By Elizabeth M. Oliver

Some 2,100 friends, members of the Catholic community and civic and church leaders attended the May 13 banquet given at the Civic Center for Bishop F. Joseph Gossman.

The event was a farewell dinner for the man who in 1970 became the first Urban Vicar in the Baltimore Archdiocese.

He has recently been named head of the Raleigh, North Carolina Archdiocese.

The many persons who took part in the program praised him as the one person who has brought about strong unity between diverse cultures and backgrounds of the citizens of all Baltimore.

A native Baltimorean, Bishop Gossman was ordained a priest in 1955 and was in 1959 to 1968 assistant pastor of the Basilica of the Assumption.

He became administrator of the Cathedral of May Our Queen in 1968 and the same year was named Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore, a post he held until he was named bishop in 1970.

Among those on the program was Americus Roy, associate in Pastoral Ministry, St. Ambrose Catholic Church, who gave benediction.

Highlighting the presentations was the $10,000 check given the bishop by Ms. Beverly A. Carroll, an archdiocese administrator on behalf of the Archdiocese membership.

Rev. Chester Wickwire, chaplain, Hopkins University and president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance also made a presentation.

Bishop Gossman goes to the Raleigh Archdiocese to become its 4th Ordinary.

Teenager gets 40 years

Henry Kinnard, 18, pleaded guilty to killing and attempted robbery of a 48-year-old truck driver on Sept. 9, 1974.

Kinnard, of the 2500 block Cecil Ave., received a forty year sentence from Judge Solomon Baylor on May 7, in Criminal Court.

Russell Eberwin, 300 blk. Ellwood Ave. was getting out of his truck in the 500 block East 25th St.,

The Baltimore Bureau of Recreation has announced that it will conduct tryouts for the United States Youth Games Bowling Team through Sunday, May 18 at any 10-pin bowling center in the city.

Boys and girls 15 and under who live within a 10 mile radius of Baltimore are eligible to participate. Further information can be obtained by calling Betty Merryman at 396-5649.

Many of the fastest bicycle riders on the East Coast will participate in the Maryland Road Classic, the state's biggest bicycle event at the Poly-Western complex at 10 a.m.

At least 200 riders will compete for $2,000 in prizes in six classes, all events being raced on the 0.8 mile course which encircles the two high schools.

Registration for the races begins at 1 a.m. Sunday, with the feature event — the 35-mile senior men's race for the Mayor's trophy-scheduled for 2 o'clock. For further information, contact Bob Wirth (367-3123); Tom Cooney (488-4087), or John Cox (335-3648).

Speaking of next week (and no one was), May 19 will be the 40th anniversary of the Birthday of Malcolm X, an outstanding spokesman for black people. Born in 1925, Malcolm was assassinated Feb. 22, 1965, 10 years ago.

The public school system in New York City closes its schools on this day.

With a lot of letters written to the City Council, School Board, and School Superintendent, one day Baltimore schools will close to honor this great black man.

I would also like to remind every young man out there who was fortunate enough to attend Western High's Junior Prom that the prom pictures are ready. Call up your dates and divide those pictures democratically!!

I would also like to remind everyone in Baltimore that the first annual Walbrook Spring Festival will be held on Friday, May 16, from 12 p.m. to 10 p.m.

This is going to be one extravaganza you just don't want to miss.

There will be carnival booths, a dance contest where prizes will be awarded, bingo, a fantastic stage production, beautiful dancing girls, ia faculty-student fashion show, and music, music, music!

Dinner will be served.

You may purchase a crab cake dinner for only $3 and a fantastic chicken dinner for only $2, plus lots of other goodies.

Remember that's Friday, May 16. From 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., it's the one and only Walbrook Spring Festival.

The public is invited and urged to attend. It all happens at fabulous Walbrook High, 2000 Edgewood St. I hope to see you there.

Next week I will give you a more detailed report on the festival. I will report on the students involved, what the money raised was used for, the teachers involved and just what did happen at the affair.

Now in the air-tight pack.
Pall Mall Menthol 100's

Hard pack, soft pack-no ordinary pack keeps its cool, like Pall Mall Menthol's air-tight pack.

Ordinary packs let air in, moisture out on the way to you.
But Pall Mall Menthol's air-tight pack is hermetically sealed to hold in all the menthol so you enjoy mint-fresh smoking when you open the pack.
