Mrs. Alston had home for elderly

Funeral services for Mrs. Ada W. Alston, 64, 3313 Bateman Ave., were held May 14 at the Herbert E. Nutter Funeral Home.

She is buried in the Arbutus Memorial Park.

For over 20 years, Mrs. Alston had turned her home into a nursing home, caring for sick and elderly persons.

Mrs. Zella Johnson, her youngest sister told the AFRO, "She always loved helping other people, that's how she spent her time in the community.

Mrs. Alston, a native Baltimorean was born November 11, 1910, the daughter of John and Mrs. Sarah Williams.

She was a member of Wayman AME Church and John Wesley United Methodist Church.

In addition to her sister, she is survived by three other sisters, Mrs. Alice William Smith, Mrs. Queen Esther Harris, and Mrs. Ozzie Beads; one son, James Bernard Williams; her father John A. Williams; a step-daughter, Miss Mickie Alston; and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Lockett is dead at age 59

Funeral Services were held Wednesday at Douglas Memorical Church for Mrs. Catherine "Kate" Lockett, 59.

She is buried at the King Memorial Park.

Mrs. Lockett died Saturday at Sinai Hospital.

She was born on January 14, 1916 in McAlpin, West Virginia to the late Lillian and Charles Williams.

When she was in the fourth grade, she met her husband Fred, who was teen in the second grade, in a two-room red school house.

She waited patiently until Fred finished college at West Virginia State, and they were married in August, 1944.

Following graduation from St Paul School of Nursing, Mrs. Lockett worked as a practical nurse serving in many areas of Baltimore City and County.

She was known as a very quiet and non-complaining person who enjoyed fun loving people around her.

Surviving are her husband, one daughter, two sons, one sister, two brothers, and two grandchildren.

Dedication services held for new church

Dedication services were held recently at Mount Olive Holy Evangelistic Church, 3816 Edmondson Ave. More than 300 people attended the services with Bishop William Wharton extending the welcome address. Mayor Schaefer presented Bishop Walter M. Warner with a citation and declared May 4, as Holy Evangelistic Day

Dr. Monroe R. Saunders, pastor of First United Church of Jesus Christ, presided at the services. Bishop W. M. Warner is the founder of the church.

The church originally started in a small building on Carroll St., then moved to Calhoun St.

The church which has a day care center, found it necessary to move because of its expanding membership. Among special guest were Joseph Bush, Marshall W. Jones Jr., Dr. Deloris Brooks, Vernon Still and Rev. William Robertz.

MAY 17

There will be a general Coppin State College Alumni Association meeting on Saturday, May 17, 4 p.m. in the Percy Julian Science Building auditorium. The purpose of this meeting is to receive nominations from the floor for officers of the executive committee.

All alumni are urged to attend.
