

1916, ch. 254, sec. 164B.

164B. No agent, collector, solicitor or other employee or representative of any company or association issuing contracts providing for sick, accident or death benefits and operating on the weekly or monthly industrial plan, shall be deemed the owner of any part of the weekly or monthly debit collected by him or that may be under his charge, care, control or supervision, but each and every such debit shall be deemed wholly the property of the company or association in whose name such policies, contracts or obligations were written or assumed. No agent, collector, solicitor, superintendent or other employee or representative of any such company or association shall barter, sell, give, transfer or in any manner switch, or offer or attempt to barter, sell, give, transfer or in any manner switch to any person, persons, company or association any part of any debit of such company or any policies or contracts of such company without the consent of said company first had in writing.

1916, ch. 254, sec. 164C.

164C. No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing any books, papers, contracts, agreements or documents at the trial or hearing of any person or company, association or society charged with violating any provision of sections 164A or 164B on the ground that such testimony or evidence may tend to incriminate himself, but no person shall be prosecuted for any act concerning which he shall be compelled so to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except for perjury committed in so testifying.

1916, ch. 254, sec. 164D.

164D. Any insurance company, association, or society, agent, solicitor or broker, or any person, firm, association or corporation, violating any provision of sections 164A, 164B and 164C shall upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars or more than Five Hundred Dollars for each and every violation, or in the discretion of the court, to an imprisonment for a period of not more than six months.

1908, ch. 322, sec. 157A. 1914, ch. 529. 1918, ch. 101, sec. 166.

166. All persons, individuals, firms, associations and corporations obtaining insurance on property situate in this State (owned by individuals or firms resident in this State, or corporations incorporated under the laws of this State), against fire, lightning or tornado, from companies, associations, firms or corporations not authorized to transact business in this State, shall file with the insurance commissioner of the State a statement or declaration setting forth the name of the company, number of policy, amount of insurance, rate, premium and description of property; shall be required to pay a tax thereon of five per cent of the premium paid on such policies to the said commissioner, and shall further pay a fee to said insurance commissioner of
