

the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and properly separated from said name, and immediately to the left of the square, opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers (said designation of the party, however, shall consist solely of the name of the party to be expressed in one word only and nothing more). To the name of each candidate for State office or candidate for Congress, shall be added the name of the county or city in which the candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square at the right of the name of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidate and his answer to such question. Immediately following each group of candidates to be voted for, there shall be a blank space or spaces, with a square or squares to the right, in which any voter may write the name of any person for whom he may desire to vote other than those already printed on the ballot, as provided for in Section 54 of this Article. If the candidate is named for the same office on two or more certificates of nomination, his name shall be printed on the ballot but once, and to the right of the name of said candidate shall be added the name of one of the parties which such candidate represents, as appearing in said certificate of nomination, and the Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause to be printed to the right of the name of such candidate whatever one of said party names, so appearing in said certificate of nomination, the said candidate shall, in writing, designate to said Board of Supervisors as the party name which he desires to be added to the right of his name on the ballot; provided, however, that such party name shall consist of one word only. When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated as provided in Section 42 of this Article, it shall be stated on the ballot to the right of the name of the candidate; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a convention or primary election claiming the same party name, duly certificated as hereinbefore provided, there shall be then printed to the right of the name of the candidate so nominated in accordance with Section 42, except Presidential Electors, only the word "Independent" and none other. If the same party name shall be claimed on behalf of nominations made by more than one convention or primary election and duly certified as aforesaid, the officers by whom the ballot is to be prepared, or a majority of them, shall determine which nominees are justly entitled to the party name, and to the right of the other nominees there shall be printed upon the ballot only the word "Independent" and none other. The names of the candidates for the office of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall be arranged in groups, as presented in the several certificates of nomination papers, and the several groups shall be arranged in such order of the surnames of the candidates for President as the several Boards of Supervisors
