

1916, ch. 367, sec. 59B.

59B. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding Section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace in either of said Counties, shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense; and in default of payment of fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with the costs, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offense; one-half of all fine or fines to go to the informer.

Elk and Deer.

1916, ch. 390.

73. There * be a closed season on Elk and Deer within the State of Maryland for a period of six years beginning from June first, 1916. Any person convicted, before any justice of the peace of Maryland, of violation of this statute shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00, for each and every offense. One-half of the fine in such case shall go to the informer or officer causing the arrest and conviction, unless such officer be a salaried game warden, and the other half of said fine shall go to the credit of the State Game Protection Fund for the protection and propagation of Game. If the arrest and conviction be effected by a salaried game warden, the entire fine recovered shall go to the State Game Protection Fund.†

Shipping Game Out of State.

1916, ch. 215.

74. It shall be unlawful to export or ship out from the limits of the State of Maryland any wild game; water-fowls excepted; and it shall also be unlawful for any express company or any common carrier, to knowingly accept any game, water-fowls excepted, for shipment without the State. Provided, however, that any hunter who has obtained the necessary license to hunt within the State of Maryland, or any county thereof, shall be permitted to carry out with him as personal baggage, for own use and not for purpose of selling same, an amount of game killed by himself equal to one day's bag limit, upon exhibiting his license, if so required. Any game shipped to points within the limits of the State shall be plainly and conspicuously marked as game.

Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not less than Twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of the State.‡

*There is an omission here in the act (probably of the word "shall").
