Senator Blount assesses the 1976 state budget

The state Capital Budget for fiscal year 1976 contains many items of interest to the black community.

Sen. Clarence W. Blount (D., Balto. City, 41st), Senate Majority Whip and vice chairman of the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee talked to the AFRO about the allocations.

In the Capital Budget, which provides funds for state construction projects, Sen. Blount said he opposes inclusion of a supplemental request of $10 million for a 100-bed maximum security juvenile facility.

"Although it is supposed to provide a place to separate youthful offenders from hardened criminals, it will probably be used to house youths who ought to be in community-based facilities," he predicted.

"A portion of the $10 million which will be the cost of this facility will go a long way toward providing more adequate community based facilities which would do more good," he contends.

The maximum security juvenile institution, as planned, will cost $20,000 a bed, by far the most expensive facility in the state.

"The philosophy of this project is contrary to the stress on community based care where rehabilitation rates are higher and the cost of care is lower," said Senator Blount.

* * *

Another item in the capital budget is $2,420,154 for the state take-over of 3 per cent of the local contribution towards public assistance payments. The legislature insisted that the governor fulfill his commitment to fund this takeover this year.

"It provides a direct savings to the taxpayer of Baltimore City," Senator Blount said.

* * *

Also of importance in the projects funded this year was an appropriation to provide more flexible funding of Youth Residences and an additional $303,409 for Youth Services Bureaus.

The state must assume fiscal responsibility for Youth Service Bureaus begun under federal LEAA programs, as those projects expire, if these excellent youth assistance facilities are to continue to operate.

* * *

Three funding requests for state colleges were of major interest to Senator Blount. He fought to retain them.

Coppin State College receives an allocation of $970,000 for an Office-Classroom Building. Morgan State College will receive $320,000 as a supplemental appropriation for its Library Fine Arts Plaza and to provide drain control near the Murphy Fine Arts Building.

Also Bowie State College will get funding for construction of a Center for Student Development. The efforts of Senator Blount and Senator Tommie Broadwater (D., 25) of Prince George's County speeded up the funding for this project.

Other projects include in the Capital Budget of concern to blacks are:

— $120,255 for a Child Abuse demonstration project.

— A juvenile facility for the Eastern Shore. The 15 bed facility will be the first juvenile facility on the Shore. $698,700 has been appropriated for its construction.

— $2,174,000 for 128 minimum security dormitory structures at the Maryland House of Corrections in Jessup and the Maryland Correctional Training Center in Hagerstown.

— $11,000 for conversion of Correctional Camps in Wicomico and Queen Anne's Counties to Regional Community Correctional Centers.

— $50,000 to convert the Eastern and Poplar Hills Correctional Camps to Regional Community Correctional Centers.

— $60,000 for acquisition of a site for a community correctional center in Prince George's County.

Senator Blount has been appointed to the Capital Budget Committee of the legislature for the coming year which will study all Capital Budget requests between sessions.

Senator Blount also told the AFRO that the state contribution to Bowie, Coppin and Morgan State Colleges will remain about the same for the coming year.

Funds allocated for the Division of Juvenile Services and the Department of Corrections reflect the 10 per cent increase in appropriations which was the inflationary allowance for all departments.

A 7 per cent increase was provided for all public assistance recipients.

Senator Blount was also instrumental in saving a 5.5 per cent salary increase and a 1.5 per cent increase in health insurance benefits for state employees. The House Appropriations Committee had recommended cutting this item, but the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee, at the insistance of Senator Blount, saw that it was retained.

3 charged in robbery of Friendship bank

A woman and two men were arrested Monday and charged with the robbery of the West Friendship branch of the Maryland National Bank of undetermined amount of money.

The three who were apprehended while caught up in a traffic jam near Route 1-70 are listed as: Ralph Steven Savage, 26, 3300 block Liberty Heights Ave.; Miss Janie L. Mason, 28, 4300 block Pimlico Rd.; and Laridona Price, 22, 300 block Font Hill.

According to Officer Linda Holly of the Howard County police, the three were arrested by an off-duty Howard County narcotics detective when he spotted them caught up in a Beltway traffic jam. Police said the arresting officer had heard a description of the get-away car broadcast minutes after the 10:40 a.m. holdup of the bank.

Officer Holly told the AFRO the robbers entered the bank and one of them placed a gun at the manager's head while the others forced customers and three tellers into a back room.

The bandits took several drawers containing money and fled in a 1968 Oldsmobile, according to the police spokesman.

Curfew Bill expected to pass in Council

The curfew bill, which is presently in the City Council's Judiciary Committee, is expected to be easily adopted when it is reported out in the council.

Only an estimated eight persons are expected to oppose the bill's passage.

"I'm still against it, "Councilman Clarence "Du" Burns (D2nd) told the AFRO.

Although against the bill, some members did propose amendments to the bill. "To make it less oppressive," said Burns.

"The problem is a problem of crime . . . let's deal with that," he said. Many agree with him.

BILL

As ammended, the bill prohibits persons sixteen years of age and younger from remaining in any public place or any establishment between the hours of midnight and 6 a.m. on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays and between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. Mondays through Thursdays.

Exemptions are allowed for persons, who are accompanied by a parent, adult relative or other person over the age of 21; upon an errand for their parents; attending cultural, scholastic, athletic, or recreational activities which are properly supervised or engaged in employed during the curfew hours.

Parents are not allowed to knowingly permit their young who are not exempted by the above activities to remain out after curfew. The same is true of propietors or owners of establishments.

A policeman who finds a minor violating the curfew is instructed to get the young person's name, address, age, and his parents names. He is then to send the person home and make a format report to the Youth Section of the Police Department. A written notice will then be sent to the parents.

Parents who allow their young to violate the provisions of the curfew can be fined between $5 and $100 and may be imprisoned for up to 10 days if the fine is not paid.

Any owner, operator or employee of an establishment which allows a minor to remain on the premises after curfew may be fined between $25 and $300 and may be imprisoned for up to 15 days if the fine is not paid.

Each violation of the curfew is considered a separate offense.

The bill would take effect October, 1, 1975.
