'DISCOVER YOU WITH US'

Free photographic supplies included in summer course

"Discover You With Us," a summer of challenge, fun and growth is offered for teens and adults, including learning and creative experiences in photography, Black History, cultural arts and ballet at the YWCA, 1912 Madison Ave., from June 23 to July 25 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. The fees are: Photography, offered separately, $6 per week; Black History, cultural arts and ballet, $8 per week; any two courses, $6 per week; any one course, $5 per week.

Culminating events will be dance performances by class participants and displays of photography, art, crafts and jewelry. Pictures produced by photography students will be combined into a traveling display.

Photography will be taught Monday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to noon, by Thomas Tyler, graduate student at Antioch College. Photography as an art form and developing film will be taught. A dark room is provided at the Madison Avenue location.

A camera and film will be provided free for the students and may be kept at the conclusion of the course. Instruction will provide job training which can lead to careers in photography, film making and television.

Black History will be taught Monday and Thursday, noon to 1 p.m. by Isaac Moreland, one of the speakers in the "Blacks in the Media Workshop" during the YWCA Black History Month celebration, 1975. The course will be based on the book, "One Hundred Amazing Facts About the Negro," by J. A. Rogers and on "Chronological History of the Negro." Both books will be provided free and may be kept by the students.

Cultural arts, Tuesday and Wednesday, 9 a.m. to noon, will include learning African dance and drumming and discussions of musical "greats" from John Coltrane through Leontyne Price through Kool and the Gang. Also included will be making African jewelry and crafts and writing poetry. Learning how to grow food, how to eat for a healthy and beautiful body, how to buy to get the most for the dollar, will also be taught. Teaching methods will include films and records. Classes will be taught by the Aikebu-Lan Vibes Society.

Basic ballet techniques will be taught Friday, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. by Vanessa Thornton, member of Maria Broom's Dance Ensemble.

All courses except Ballet are open to male and female.

For information or registration call 669-1651, the Madison Avenue YWCA. The YWCA is a member agency of the United Fund of Central Maryland.

Eastern Center offers free adult courses

An evening program for adults will be offered at the Eastern High School Evening Center, 1101 East 33rd St., beginning at 7 p.m., Monday, June 16.

Sponsored by the Area of Adult and Community Education of the Baltimore City Public Schools, the school will offer courses in Basic Education for those adults desiring to improve reading writing and arithmetic skills.

A complete business education program is available for adults preparing for office careers along with high school credit courses for adults seeking a diploma.

Foreign born adults will receive help in reading writing and speaking American English.

All adults and out-of school youth over 16 years of age, residing in Baltimore City or Baltimore County are eligible. Classes are free except for a $2 materials fee.

Registration is Thursday, June 12 at 7 p.m. Classes will continue through August 7.

Morgan State College.

The purpose of the meeting was to ascertain the interest of people on the original mailing list and to determine whether or not this project is acceptable. The Council agreed to meet at Forest Park High School, Wednesday, June 25, at 2 p.m.

The Council will identify itself as a service group interested in helping local clubs, neighborhood associations, and other such groups to organize a calendar, secure publicity, and identify locations for Bicentennial events.

This Council will report to the Baltimore Bicentennial Committee because it is the committee that: a. makes arrangements for groups to use public buildings; b. can provide pamphlets, brochures, and other printed materials; c. can prevent conflicts of dates, places, and events.

This Council will contact local clubs, neighborhood associations, and other such groups to see that every group knows what the others are doing and to point out instances where plans are similar and where affairs can be sponsored jointly.

Present at the meeting were: Leroy Durham, Mrs. Mary Ellis, Dennis Ferrell, Mrs. Mary Guilicry, Mrs. Annette Hall, Dr. Lucia Hawthorne, Mrs. Edna De Coursey Johnson, Mrs. Catherine Orange, Mrs. Barbara Patterson, Norman Ross, Miss Betty Williams, Mrs. Edmonia Yates, Mrs. Gwendolyn Brooks, convener.

All Pals Social Club

The All Pals Social Club will host a benefit cabaret at the National Maritime Union Hall, 8 N. Broadway, 9 p.m.-2 a.m. on Friday, June 27. Music will be provided by the Morocco's Band and feature the Mondell's, a singing group.

Part of the proceeds from the affair will be donated to the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind.

For further information contact, George Carrison, 727-7198 or Gary Harris, 624-0969.

Alpha Lodge

Recent contributions and pledges made to the Alpha Lodge Anna Mae Hunter Home drive include: Robert Perkins and family, $10; Jeremiah Dawson, $5; The Jolly 12 Club, $5; Gary Harris and family, $5; Lemuel Puson and family, $5; Maynor's Limousine Service, $5; Ernestine Spears and family, $3.

Barbara Johnson, Robert C. Jone, Barbara Johnson, John M. Moynor Jr., Irvins Grocery, Anna Marie Marshall, Michael F. Marshall, Melvin A. Marshall, all $1.

Angela Davis, Miss Little to speak

Angela Davis and Joann Little, two of the most famous women prisoners of modern times, head the list of speakers at the May 31 Washington D.C. demonstration against increasingly severe repression in the State of North Carolina.

Ms. Little faces trial in July in that state for killing a jail guard who tried to rape her.

The demonstration focuses around the cases of the Reverend Ben Chavis and the Wilmington 10. Rev. Chavis and his codefendants have been sentenced to a total of 282 years for defending a church in the black community of Wilmington, N.C during an alleged four-day armed siege by the Ku Klux Klan in 1971.

On [illegible] can Indians plus some of their religions, literature, law and art will be examined in a three-credit undergraduate course being offered by Loyola College during the school's second summer session which gets underway on July 21.

The course, "History of the North American Indian," will be taught by Dr. Frank Evans, an expert on the American Indian, and will convene each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evening during the six-week session.

For more information on the course, interested persons should contact the Loyola evening division, 323-1010, ext. 255.

When I buy bread and snack-cakes, I know they're fresh.
How can I be so sure? Easy. I only buy Wonder Bread and Hostess snack-cakes. They're always fresh and wholesome.
I might skimp on some things, but when it comes to freshness, nothing but the best will do for my family.
Why not try delicious Wonder Bread and moist, tender Hostess snack-cakes for your family. They'll love 'em. And so will you.
Nothing tastes better than freshness.

WOODLAWN HIGHLIGHTS

Showers and weddings

By Marjorie R. Green
AFRO Columnist

There was a lot of laughter and happiness in the air last Friday evening when members of Les Tams Club gave a lingerie shower for club member BARBARA COX who is scheduled to become the June bride of Willie Mitchell, Birmingham, Ala.

The women met at the beautiful Elba Drive home of Forriest Ayers to dine and present an assortment of dainty gifts to the honoree. Barbara works for the Department of Interior as an Equal Opportunity Specialist but she seemed more like a little girl at her first birthday party as she excitedly opened each gift with screams of surprise and delight.

Club members joining in the fun included: President, Olivia Weems; Glady Scott, Irene Terry, Hortense Henry, Jenny McCoy, Virginia Patterson, Elnora White, Forrlester Ayers and Marjorie Green.

Club members Rose Logan and Clarissa Nelson were unable to attend.

Speaking of weddings, Mrs. Sorie Street is busy helping daughter, Andrea get ready for her June 21 wedding. Andrea's—marriage to Donald R. Holmes will take place at Union Baptist Church. The Rev. Vernon Dobson will perform the ceremony.

Words cannot describe the fantastic setting Sunday evening at the Bonnie Ridge Clubhouse where Mildred Louise Nelson received guests at a reception after graduation exercises at Morgan State College.

Friends dined at the upstairs buffet overlooking the swimming pool while others danced to live music on the lower level. Sharing as host and hostess were graduates Adalee Woodside from Nassau, Bansmas and Michael Wissah, Liberia, West Africa.

Mildred works in the Equal Opportunity office in the Dickinson Tower building. She is also the newly-elected treasurer for the K.L.W.'s (Kings Landing Women's Club.
