Woodlawn Highlights

Maryland Baptist Aged Home and former SSA employee: Miss Helen V. [illegible], past president, Women's Auxiliary, MBC.

Also attending were: the Rev. J. Marion Bradley, Mrs. Helen Moore, Mrs. Josie Keene, Mrs. Willa Mae Brown, Philmore Hart and the recently retire, Mrs. Gladys Palmer.

Those who were not in attendance on Tuesday morning certainly missed a very memorable message on "The Work of the Church" delivered by Rev. Arthur J. Payne, the minister who officiated at my wedding many years ago.

All of the messages delivered during the week were so very inspirational that I hesitate to dwell on any particular one. However, I cannot ignore the fact that the Rev. C. C. Alexander displayed great charisma in his presentation of the President's Address.

Don't fail to secure a copy.

In this International Women's Year we have to recognize the fact that the women, too, were ever present and just as dynamic under the capable leadership of their president, Mrs. Mary E. Harrington.

To sum it all up — It was a beautiful week of living "Within the Gospel."

Counseling grant given Coppin State

The Graduate Division of Coppin State College announces that the Rehabilitation Counseling Department has received a training grant from the Social Rehabilitation Services, Dept. of HEW, to conduct an innovative program in rehabilitation counseling during 1975-76.

The program will introduce model reinforcement procedures in the rehabilitation process and offer intensive agency training in client services.

The rehabilitation agencies of four contiguous states, Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia and Virginia, will participate and provide field work experiences and supervised training to the traineeship students.

A limited number of traineeship stipends, with tuition fees, is available for full-time students leading to an M.ED. degree in Rehabilitation Counseling.

The program is from July 1, 1975 to June 30, 1976. The deadline for application June 20.

Information on admission, registration and traineeship awards may be obtained from: Dr. S. B. Mitra, chairman, Dept. of Rehabilitation Counseling, Coppin State College, 2500 West North Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21216. Phone: (301) 383-4532
