Baha' is set unity day

Race Unity Day will be observed by members of the Baltimore Metropolitan area on June 8 at 12 noon at the Baltimore City Baha'i Center, 5301 Gwynn Oak Ave. Race Unity Day, June 19 is sponsored by the U.S. Baha'i Community and is observed in over 4500 localities where Baha'is reside. The purpose of the day is to focus attention on the most challenging issue facing America — racial prejudice and discrimination and to stress the essential oneness of mankind under God.

There will be addresses by Elbrt L. Guillory, executive director of the Maryland Human Relations Commission. Mrs. Enolia V. McMillan, president of the NAACP; and Dr. Chester Wickwire, chaplain of Johns Hopkins University. The public is cordially invited to come and share the remarks of the speakers, the music and refreshments.

Duncan cited at McDonogh

Columbus (Duke) Duncan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Duncan of this city, was honored by McDonogh School during graduation ceremonies held May 31.

He was one of 86 seniors receiving diplomas from the independent preparatory school.

Duncan, captain of the school's basketball team and co-captain of its baseball team, received the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Memorial Trophy for Excellence in Athletics.

His long ball-hitting exploits for the Eagles baseball team helped make McDonogh a power in the Maryland Scholastic Association "B" Conference this spring.

In addition, young Duncan received the Character and Influence Award from the school and earned a scholarship to the University of Virginia.

* * *

Located in Baltimore County, McDonogh has an enrollment of 775 boys in its twelve grades.

Duke lives with his parents at 2008 Quantico Ave.

The program of sports activity classes for the summer months was announced this week by the Cental YMCA.

Included are Monday afternoon and Wednesday evening classes for tumbling, bar and sidehorse work and other gymnastices; Thursday morning fitness exercises; Friday morning gymnastics, and Saturday morning boxing clinics for boys 9-14 years.

The athletic department also announced a program of scuba diving training which commences this evening (Friday) at 6 p.m.
