50. Examination of Companies. Once at least during his term of office the commissioner shall cause the affairs of every insurance company organized under the laws of this State to be thoroughly inspected and examined with special regard to its financial condition and its ability to fulfill its obligations, and shall ascertain and determine whether or not it has complied with the laws of this State; he shall also cause an examination of every such company to be made whenever he deems it prudent to do so, or upon the request of five or more of the stockholders, creditors, policyholders, or persons pecuniarily interested therein, who shall make affidavit of their belief, with specifications of reasons thereof, showing a prima facie case that such company is in an unsound condition. Whenever the insurance commissioner may have reason to doubt the solvency or the correctness of the statement of any foreign company which may have been licensed to do business in this State, or which may be applying for said license, he shall communicate such doubts, and the reasons therefor, to the insurance commissioner, or other officer charged with the supervision of insurance corporations of the state in which said company is located, and if he is not satisfied from the information obtained from such insurance commissioner or other officer, or from the officers of the company, that the condition of the company is such as to warrant him in permitting it to transact business in this State, under the provisions of this Article, he shall
