CONSUMER CORNER

for food stamp facts

Food stamps are not a perfect solution to anyone's problems, but they are helping a lot of people through tough times. We are told that some who could get stamps and the increased buying power they provide are not aware of their eligibility; that others don't know how to get the facts; and that still others feel too shy or perplexed to go through the red tape.

If any of those somebodies could be you, check the store addresses below. Pantry Pride has asked the experts to be on hand this week and next. U.S.D.A. Food Stamps Representatives will provide food stamps facts. County Home Extension people will have basic nutrition information and dollar stretching menus for everyone.

Look for them at these Pantry Prides from 10 a.m. til 4 p.m.
