

that the collectors of the county taxes of Carroll County now have; and for any failure on his part to pay over to the town clerk and treasurer any taxes collected by him, or other funds belonging to the corporation, he shall be subject to suit on his bond and criminal prosecution as the tax collectors of Carroll County now are; he shall inform himself, annually, of all the property within the corporate limits liable to assessment which may have been omitted from the last assessment, and of all buildings and improvements made, and of all property acquired since the last assessment; he shall value said property at its cash value, and return the same to the Mayor and Council at the time and in the manner to be prescribed by them; and the same shall be assessed to the proper parties and taxed to them thereafter, and the taxes collected as other taxes are collected; and in the performance of his duties as bailiff, the said bailiff shall receive the same fees that bailiffs and constables receive in like cases, and for like services; and for the collection of taxes and other duties, he shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council shall by ordinance prescribe.

1894, ch. 283, sec. 54F.

83. The Mayor of said town, by virtue of his office, for municipal purposes and for preserving the peace, shall have all the powers and authorities of a justice of the peace, and shall see that the ordinances of the corporation are duly executed; he shall sign all ordinances passed by the council; and in case he disapprove of any ordinance, he may refuse to sign the same, and shall return it to the council at the next meeting thereof with his reasons for withholding his signature therefrom; and if the said ordinance, when again put upon its passage, shall receive the votes of five-sixths of the members of said council, it shall become a valid ordinance without the signature of the mayor.

1894, ch. 283, sec. 54G

84. Any justice of the peace resident in said town, upon complaint made before him of the violation of any ordinance of said corporation, shall issue process in the name of the Mayor and Council to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinance, against the party offending, and may hear and determine the matter as in any case arising under the laws of the State, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

1894, ch. 283, sec. 54H.

85. In default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by him for a violation of any ordinance of the corporation, the justice may commit the party fined to the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days; and the sheriff of Carroll County shall receive and confine the party so committed in the same manner as other prisoners, and shall be entitled to the same compensation therefor.
