

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 5. 1888, ch. 138.

5. The said president, vice-president or managers, or any of them, are authorized and empowered to discharge and dismiss at any time any one or more of the special constables aforesaid, on account of a refusal or failure, for any cause, to perform any duty imposed by or in accordance with this sub-title of this Article; and any special constable so discharged and dismissed shall forfeit and lose part or all of his per diem or wages due to him from the said society for any service as special constable aforesaid, at the discretion of the aforesaid managers.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 6. 1888, ch. 138.

6. No person to whom the said society shall grant the privilege of bartering or selling any goods, chattels, wares or merchandise within the grounds of said society during any exhibition or fair, or to whom the said society shall grant the privilege of exhibiting any lawful games, show or performance within the grounds aforesaid during any exhibition or fair, shall be required to take out any license from or pay any fee or reward to the State of Maryland or said county for or on account of such privilege; provided, the said society shall annually pay to the Board of School Commissioners of said county the sum of twenty-five dollars for the use of the public schools in said county.

ALMSHOUSE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 7. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298. 1890, ch. 3, sec. 7.

7. On the second Tuesday in February, eighteen hundred and ninety, the County Commissioners of Cecil County shall appoint three discreet and competent persons, residents of said county, not more than two of whom shall be adherents of the same political party, trustees of the poor and insane of Cecil County, for the following terms: one trustee to serve for six years, one for four years, and one for two years, from the second Tuesday of January, eighteen hundred and ninety, and until their successors are appointed and qualified, and should any person appointed by the County Commissioners fail or neglect to qualify for thirty days, the County Commissioners shall fill the vacancy, conforming, however, to the conditions for the first selection of trustees. On the second Tuesday of January in every second year, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, the County Commissioners of Cecil County shall appoint one trustee of the poor and insane of Cecil County to serve for six years from the date of his appointment, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, and all appointments shall be subject to the restriction that not more than two of said trustees shall be adherents of the same political party; the said trustees, or any of them, may be removed at any time by the County Commissioners for any violation of law or neglect of duty; provided, that such cause for removal shall in every case be first communicated in writing to the trustee so removed by the County Commissioners.
