

BRIDGES.

BRIDGE OVER LONG CREEK.

1914, ch. 139.

46. The right is hereby granted to the County Commissioners of Cecil County, to construct, or to authorize the construction by such person or persons as they may designate to construct and maintain a wooden highway bridge across said Long Creek in the Second Election District of said Cecil County at the point where said public road as laid out and opened crosses said Long Creek, which point is approximately eight hundred (800) feet from the intersection of said Long Creek with Back Creek, and to construct and maintain the necessary approaches thereto, which said bridge may be of the closed type of construction, but which said bridge at the centre of the channel of said Long Creek shall have a clearance or head room of not less than eight feet above mean high water in said Long Creek.

BRIDGE OVER SASSAFRAS RIVER.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 47. 1870, ch. 415.

47. All persons passing over the Sassafras River bridge on horseback, in carriages, carts, wagons, sleighs, or other vehicles shall be required to put their horses in a walk, otherwise they shall be fined five dollars for each and every offense; it shall be the duty of the bridge tender to see to the enforcement of this section; any justice of the peace for either Cecil County or Kent County in which any party violating the above provisions may be found, shall have jurisdiction in the matter; and the penalty shall be recovered in the name of the County Commissioners of said counties, in an action for debt.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 48. 1870, ch. 415.

48. All captains, owners, masters and sailors of vessels, going through the draw of said bridge, shall be required to lower and take in as much sail as shall be necessary to prevent damage by carelessness before going through the same, and at a sufficient distance therefrom, to remove liability of injury or damage to said drawbridge by the headway of such vessels, and shall use in the management of said vessels reasonable care to prevent injury.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 49. 1870, ch. 415.

49. Any person who, by reason of gross neglect or inattention, shall violate the preceding section, shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each and every such offense, and pay all damages that may be done to the said bridge.
