

AMUSEMENT LICENSES.

1914, ch. 135.

12. Every person, persons or corporation that shall, hereafter, hold in Charles County, any dance, picnic or other form of amusement or entertainment for pecuniary profit and gain to the said person, persons or corporation, for which no license is now provided by law, shall, before giving or holding same, first obtain from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County, Maryland, a license or permit thereof for which the said clerk shall charge a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for each day upon which such entertainment or form of amusement is held, and any person, persons or corporation, who shall be guilty of the violation of the provision hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100), and in default of the payment thereof shall be sentenced to the county jail for a period of not less than sixty (60) days or more than six (6) months; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall apply to any such entertainment given or held for religious, educational or fraternal organizations, and when no other persons or corporation shall share in the profits and gain therefrom.

BENEDICT.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 27. 1860, Art. 9, sec. 27.

13. No person shall permit his swine or geese to go at large in the Town of Benedict; and any citizen of said town may kill or impound any hog or goose found going at large therein; and if the owner of any hog or goose impounded shall not within three days after notice in writing, redeem such hog or goose, by paying for impounding the same the sum of one dollar for every hog and thirty-seven and a half cents for every goose, the person impounding may sell the same at the most public place in said town, and after deducting the penalties aforesaid shall pay the balance of the proceeds of sale to the owner.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 28. 1860, Art. 9, sec. 28.

14. If any person shall be sued for impounding or killing any hog or goose found going at large in said town he may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence.

BIRDS AND GAME.

(All local laws relating to birds and game were repealed by ch. 568, 1927. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 99.)

BOUNDARIES.

1902, ch. 65, sec. 1.

15. Jos. F. Morgan, of St. Mary's County, S. Henry Cox, of Charles County, and Aquilla T. Robinson, of Prince George's County, are hereby