Mayor launches fire education campaign

Mayor Schaefer has announced the start of "Operation Save-A-Life," a massive public education campaign stressing the need for fire safety and fire prevention in the home.

The mayor said that 42 people have died in fires in Baltimore City since Jan. 1, more than were killed by fire during all of 1974. Another 91 persons have been injured in fires in the past six months, and $2 ½ million worth of property has been destroyed.

"Operation Save-A-Life emphasizes the absolute necessity for families and individuals to plan ahead, before fire starts in their homes," Mayor Schaefer said.

"We want residents to pre-plan escape routes, to hold practice fire drills, to know how to react if a fire breaks out," he continued. Residents should also take precautions to avoid fire-hazardous conditions in their homes, he added.

The Save-A-Life campaign will rely on a joint effort by city agencies, neighborhood associations, religious groups, business firms, the news media and individuals.

The City has printed 330,000 copies of a Save-A-Life pamphlet, and will produce an additional 500,000 copies, containing useful safety information. Community associations, businesses, schools, churches and others throughout the City are cooperating.

Company publications, community newspapers, payroll messages and mass mailings are some of the means to be utilized to inform the public.

CONSUMER CORNER

The Chicken or the Egg

We don't know which really came first. We do know that inside our egg cartons are finely shaped shells. And that inside those are fresh whites and yolks. And that together they are more nutritionally complete than any other food in our store, even chicken.

Now we wouldn't say anything was a better buy than our chicken. Our poultry buyer is a sharp sighted and sharp tempered expert who'd never forgive us and our chicken is still a fine buy (it may go up again soon).

But eggs have come down and become a bigger bargain. Many people are eating fewer because of the cholesterol in the yolks, but eggs are the closest-to-perfect food we know: Beautiful for breakfast, lovely for lunch, super for supper delights for diers and a blessing for budgets. Perfect for picnics too. Leave shells on 'til eating, they're nature's sterile wrap.

County, city pledge era of cooperation

Mayor Schaefer and Baltimore County Executive Theodore G. Venetoulis have declared their intention to work closely to develop "a new era of cooperation" between their two subdivisions.

Symbolic of their close working relationship, Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Venetoulis issued a joint press release, the first between the Mayor and the Baltimore County Executive in recent memory, stating their mutual concerns and plans.

Both men noted that Baltimore City and Baltimore County have cooperated fruitfully in the past, but, they added, "much remains to be done."

We have been working together during the past four months to further city-county cooperation. There has been a series of working sessions between members of the two administrations to discuss issues of mutual concern. We are now going to formalize this process into a broader base of cooperation to establish a regular forum at the executive, department head, and staff levels, for exchange of ideas and development of mutual solutions to problems."

The joint statement of the Mayor and the County Executive was released in conjunction with the 34th annual dinner of the Citizens Planning and Housing Association, at which both officials spoke on the topic of "City-County Cooperation." The dinner was held Sunday, June 15, at the Johns Hopkins University.

The two officials announced that they will meet in a few weeks to discuss a mutually-agreed upon agenda. "We hope to be able at that time to announce the first significant new steps toward increased cooperation between the city and the county," Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Venetoulis stated.

In his prepared remarks, Mr. Venetoulis outlined some of the areas in which he and Mayor Schaefer will examine joint policies. Among them are:

Environmental: including sewers, water supply, watershed-flood plain planning, reservoir protection, storm water management, water quality, continued efforts in the Baltimore Harbor planning process, solid waste, and the sediment control program.

Governmental: embracing joint metropolitan purchasing, and greater coordination between fire and police departments.

Cultural-Institutional: covering various facilities, such as parks and recreation open space, museums, support for a proposed Convention Center, and various promotional councils.

16 Morgan cadets for advanced training

One woman and 15 men Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) cadets from Morgan State College have begun six weeks of advanced camp training on June 14 at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The cadets will participate in leadership training with about 2,000 other ROTC cadets representing more than 100 campuses throughout the First ROTC Region. First ROTC Region spans 17 eastern states, Puerto Rico and Washington, D.C.

Approximately 100 of the cadets attending advanced camp 75 are women. This year marks the first year female cadets are attending the Ft. Bragg Advanced Camp.

The cadets will receive 272 hours of instruction and practical exercises emphasizing platoon-level leadership. Female cadets will receive the same training as the male cadets with the exception of training pertaining to offensive techniques.

Some of the training the cadets receive will be orienteering, Recondo, platoon offensive and defensive techniques, signal communications and rifle marksmanship.

Attendance at ROTC advanced camp is a prerequisite for all cadets before they are commissioned as second lieutenants. After successfully completing advanced camp, two cadets from Morgan State College will receive their commissions.

MTA alters bus routes for summer

The Mass Transit Administration will make schedule changes on many of its bus lines beginning Sunday, June 22, 1975.

The changes reflect school vacations, and a general decrease in ridership.

These are the changes that will be in effect all summer:

NUMBER 5 BUS-

No. 5 shuttle, No. 58 and No. 58A will be incorporated into additional branches of the No. 5 and marked, "Halcyon Gate", "Caves", "Ranchleigh", and "Greenwood". The frequency of service will remain basically the same as the former routes.

NUMBER 34 BUS-

The No. 34 is being discontinued, but will be replaced by slected trips on the No. 22 line. These trips will be marked Lakewood and O'Donnell, and will operate every 30 minutes from Bank and Conkling southbound during the peak hours, (6:30-9:30 a.m. and 3:30-6:30 p.m.) on the weekdays.

NUMBER 38 BUS "PLAZA SPECIAL"

This bus will be incorporated into the No. 44 bus line, and one morning and one afternoon trip will operate to and form Reistertown Road Plaza on weekdays and on Saturday. Other minor changes have also been made.

NUMBER 10 BUS

Significant changes have been made to the No. 10 line in the Fallsleaff and Sanzo Roads vicinity. Part of the existing No. 58 line will be incorporated into the local route of this No. 10 branch and frequency of service will be every hour. Due to the construction work on Charles St., the route will be altered slighly.

The No. 10 Belvieu service will remain the same as existing service.

NUMBER 17 BUS

Major changes have been made on the No. 17 line to incorporate parts of the existing route with the No. 28 line which is being discontinued. This new route will begin at Gibson Island and Lon Point, and continue to Howard and Centre, incorporating the No. 28A from Crain Highway and B and A Blvd. to Howard and Centre.

NUMBER 51 BUS

Selected trips will be made to Cherry Hill on the No. 51 line from Washington Blvd. and Monroe Street every 30 minutes during the peak hours and every 60 minutes during the mid-day (9:30 a.m. 3:30 p.m.) and after 6:30 p.m.

NUMBER 57 BUS

The No. 57 is being discontinued, but will be replaced by selected trips on the No. 22 line. These trips will be marked Via Gorsuch Ave. and will operate every 30 minutes until 6:30 p.m., and every 60 minutes after 6:30 p.m. during the week.

NUMBER 66 BUS

Two a.m. and two p.m. trips will operate on the No. 66 line between Rivera Beach and Westinghouse. Westbound from Riviera Beach the trips will leave at 5:30 and 6:38 a.m. In the evening, the trips will originate at Westinghouse at 3:37 and 5:05 p.m. and proceed east to Riviera Beach.
