

surveys made by private surveyors that may be brought to him for record, in well-bound record books, to be procured by him at his own expense.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 437. 1918 Code, sec. 714.

735. He shall make out and keep a complete index of all surveys recorded, or to be hereafter recorded in his office, in well-bound books to be procured at his own expense.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 438. 1918 Code, sec. 715.

736. Whenever so requested, he shall record all surveys made by private surveyors upon payment to him at the rate of ten cents for every hundred words, and shall make copies or abstracts of surveys from his records whenever the same shall be demanded, upon payment to him of the like sum of ten cents per one hundred words; provided, that no such charge shall be made when such copies or abstracts shall be called for by the circuit court, the orphans' court or the county commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 439. 1918 Code, sec. 716.

737. The County Commissioners are authorized and required to pay to the county surveyor as salary, the annual sum of three hundred dollars, in quarterly instalments of seventy-five dollars each.

SWINE AND GEESE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 440. 1918 Code, sec. 717.

738. No swine or geese belonging to any inhabitant of Creagerstown shall be allowed to go at large in said town, and if either be found going at large it shall be the duty of justices of the peace, upon the information of any citizen of said town, or upon their own personal knowledge of the same, to have said swine and geese impounded, and they shall charge the owners one dollar for each swine and twenty-five cents for each goose so found at large, which charge shall be in the nature of a fine, and shall retain them until such fines are paid; all emoluments arising from said fines shall be paid to the trustees of the public schools for the school district in which said town is located, for the use of such public schools.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 441. 1918 Code, sec. 718.

739. Any person may kill any swine or poultry going at large in the Town of New Market.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 442. 1918 Code, sec. 719.

740. No inhabitant of Liberty, or inhabitant of any small lots of ground containing less than ten acres of land, lying within a quarter of a mile of said town, shall raise or keep any swine or geese within said town, or within a quarter of a mile thereof, except in enclosures; or suffer any geese or swine to go at large in said town, or within a quarter of a mile of said town; and any person may kill or impound any swine or geese so going at large; and if impounded shall immediately give no-