Gourmet lunches at YWCA

Gourmets have a treat in store at the YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association) during the "Eight Days Around the World in Baltimore" celebration. On Monday, June 23, a Russian lunch will be served: June 24, French; June 25, Spanish; June 26, Estonian; June 27, Philippine. Sold between noon and 2 p.m. at 128 W. Franklin St., the lunches will be reasonably priced.

Russian lunch will offer a choice of three "pirogs"—cabbage, chicken and rice, "blinchiki," a crepe with meat, mushrooms and eggs. A "vinaigrette" salad, Russian type with beets, cucumbers, tomatoes and potatoes, and a Russian dessert, "kisel," (or flummery in America), a thickened fruit juice, will complete the meal.

French lunch will consist of a choice of three main dishes: quiche, a crust containing a custard-like mixture of eggs and cream combined with bacon and Swiss cheese; flamiche, leeks cooked with bacon, then combined with Philadelphia cream cheese, eggs and cream, placed in a crust and baked until brown; or pate, a mixture of pork, liver and spices, sliced and served with French bread. A green (lettuce) salad with vinaigrette dressing--mustard, vinegar and oil--and mixed fruit au kirsch (liqueur) will also be served.

SPANISH

Spanish lunch will include "gazpacho," a cold soup with cucumbers, green peppers and tomatoes, served with French bread and a Spanish rice with chicken (arroz con pollo). For dessert, tortas (cake) will top off the meal.

Estonian and Phillipine meals will also be typical of those countries.

The lunches are served in conjunction with the YWCA International Division participation in "Eight Days Around the World in Baltimore," June 21 to 29. In Room 108, 128 W. Franklin St., twenty nationality costumes, collected in middle Europe after the First World War and donated to the International Division of the YWCA, will be displayed.

Fourteen ethnic pavilions--American Indian, Asian, Greek, German (two), Irish, Norwegian, Polish (two), Ukranian (two), as well as the YWCA and the Enoch Pratt Library--will display artifacts and offer entertainment, such as folk dancing, movies, plays and music. Admission to all 14 pavilions as often as desired will be by a $3 "passport" which may be purchased at any YWCA, other ethnic pavilions, hotels and Hutzler's.

Food clips

Have you tried "glazing" carrots, parsnips, and sweet potatoes with a blend of orange juice concentrate of honey (mix the water) makes a good combo.

• • •

What's the difference between herbs and spices? Herbs are leaves and sometimes the flowers of aromatic plants grown in the temperate zones; spices come from aromatic plants grown in the tropics.

If acid ingredients (like tomatoes, catsup or vinegar) are included in a recipe, add after the vegetables are tender. Acid prevents beans and peas from softening.

You can tranform leftover vegetables into new and interesting dishes by adding them to tossed green salads, to egg dishes, meat dishes--and even gelatin molds.
