

1906, ch. 423, sec. 122A.

216. Said Mayor and Council shall have power to provide by ordinance for levying a tax on all saloons or places where intoxicating liquors are sold within the town of Grantsville, and which tax shall not be less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars per annum, to be fixed and designated each year by said Mayor and Council within the limits aforesaid; and any person desiring to sell spirituous or fermented or intoxicating liquors within the limits of the town of Grantsville shall make application to the clerk of said corporate authorities designating the place or house wherein he or she desires to open said saloon or place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and upon the payment by the said party making application for said permit and the payment of the corporation tax as aforesaid, he or she shall be authorized to sell liquors, malt and spirituous, in the town of Grantsville, subject to the general laws of the State of Maryland in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and said clerk shall issue a permit or license to said party making application for the same, and upon his or her compliance with the provisions of this article; but said permit shall not authorize or permit said party or parties to sell liquors of any kind at any other place within the corporate limits other than the place designated in said application; and said place so designated in said application shall be closed, so far as the sale of intoxicating liquors are concerned, promptly at ten o'clock P. M. every week night, and shall remain closed from ten o'clock P. M. until six o'clock A. M. of the following day, and any one violating the provision by opening or selling liquor between the hours named or from any time from ten o'clock Saturday night until six o'clock Monday morning, or shall attempt to open up a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of the town of Grantsville before receiving a permit so to do from the Mayor and Council aforesaid, and the payment of the tax hereinbefore provided for, he or she shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, and each sale shall be deemed a new offense; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors by regular pharmacist or druggist having a license for such business under the laws of this State upon a written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician, whose name shall be attached thereto. All such permits for the sale of intoxicating liquors within the town of Grantsville shall be dated from the first day of May of each year, and shall expire the thirtieth day of April following, and any application made for a permit for the sale of intoxicating liquors after the first day of May shall be charged for, for the time elapsing between the date of said application and said thirtieth day of April, in proportion to the whole amount of the tax for one year.
