

1896, ch. 373, sec. 1.

519. Any person or persons who shall enter upon the enclosed land of any person or persons or body corporate in Garrett county, Maryland, with intent to hunt or fish on same, without first having obtained permission so to do from the owner or owners of said land, or from his, her, their, or its agent, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, be fined not less than $1 nor more than $20, and in default of payment of said fine, together with the costs of prosecution, shall be by said justice of the peace committed to the county jail for not less than one nor more than twenty days.

1896, ch. 373, sec. 2.

520. All fines collected under the foregoing section shall be paid by the justice of the peace before whom such conviction was had over to the County School Commissioners of said county, for the use of the schools therein, within thirty days after having received the same, and shall take duplicate receipts therefor from said School Commissioners, one of which he shall file with the County Commissioners of said Garrett county.*

WAGES.

1892, ch. 445, sec. 1.

521. Every corporation engaged in mining or manufacturing or operating a railroad in Garrett County, and employing ten or more hands, shall pay its employees the full amount of their wages in legal tender money of the United States; and that any contract by or on behalf of any such corporation for the payment of the whole or any part of such wages in any other manner than herein provided, shall be and is hereby declared illegal, null and void; and that every such employee shall be entitled to recover from any such corporation employing him the whole or so much of the wages earned by him as shall not have been actually paid to him in legal tender money of the United States, without set off or deduction of his demand for or in respect of any account or claim whatever.

See State v. Potomac Coal Co., 116 Md. 381.

1892, ch. 445, sec. 2.

522. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any such corporation from demising to any of its employees the whole or any part of any tenement in said county of any rent thereon reserved or from contracting for or advancing money to supply him with medicine or medical attendance needed for himself or family, or smithing or fuel, and deducting from the wages of any such employee for and in respect of such rent, medicine, medical attendance, smithing or fuel or money advanced as aforesaid.

*Sec. 3, ch. 373, 1896, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
