

ever which the said Orphans' Court could do at its regular sessions; and there shall be the same right of appeal from any order, decree or judgment of said register, as from the orders, decisions or judgments of said Orphans' Court.

Maynadler v. Armstrong, 98 Md. 177. Daugherty v. Daugherty, 131 Md. 489.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 441.

430. It shall be the official duty of the register of wills for said county, to keep regularly a continuous general index or key to guardians' accounts, and to wills in his office.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 442.

431. The deputy of the register of wills is empowered to administer all oaths that the register of wills is by law empowered to administer.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 443.

432. Hugh T. Bay, register of wills of Harford County, is hereby authorized to make a complete index of all wills now on record in the Orphans' Court for Harford County; for which services he shall be entitled to receive such fair and reasonable compensation as may be mutually agreed upon between him and the Board of County Commissioners of Harford County, not, however, exceeding the sum of $75.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 445.

433. John Archer, Alfred H. Wilson and Henry A. Whitaker are hereby appointed Commissioners, and they or a majority of them are authorized and empowered by virtue of this Act to contract for and superintend the furnishing of the office of the Register of Wills of Harford County with steel furnishings, including files, book cases and other necessary equipment, of an approved system and make now in use, of which system and make said Commissioners shall determine.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 446.

434. Said Commissioners shall inquire into and put into operation and effect a proper system of filing and classifying all papers in said office and shall set apart such unrecorded papers now in said office, which involve or concern real estate, real estate holdings or the titles thereto, and have them properly recorded and indexed by the Register of Wills of Harford County at the usual rate charged for such work in said office; not including, however, papers filed in proceedings, now and hereafter, depending in said Court, the recording and indexing of which shall be paid by the parties to the proceedings as now required by law.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 447.

435. The County Commissioners of Harford County are hereby authorized and required to levy upon the assessable property of said County as other County charges are levied, a sum or sums not exceeding $2,400, sufficient to pay for said files, cases, equipment and fixtures and for said
