NOTICE
PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF MARYLAND
ORDER NO. 61340
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF MARYLAND
CASE NO. 6651

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF BALTIMORE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY FOR REVISIONS IN ITS ELECTRIC, GAS AND STEAM RATES.

WHEREAS, Baltimore Gas and Electric Company (Company) on June 19, 1975, filed with the Commission an application for revisions in its electric, gas and steam rates, designated as Supplement 137 to P.S.C.Md. E-6 (Electric), Supplement 100 to P.S.C.Md. G-9 (Gas), and Supplement 53 to P.S.C.Md. DSH-2 (Steam), to become effective on bills rendered for meter readings taken on and after July 19, 1975, and designed to produce $75,300,000 in additional annual gross revenues of which $65,000,000 represents increases in electric rates, $13,600,000 would be realized from gas rates, and $700,000 from steam rates, for an overall increase in the Company's annual revenues of about 11 percent; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 70 of The Public Service Commission Law, the Commission determines and concludes after consideration and upon its own motion that the aforesaid proposed revisions in the electric, gas and steam rates should be suspended in order to provide opportunity for the Commission to determine the justice and reasonableness thereof.

IT IS, THEREFORE, this 20th day of June, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-five, by the Public Service Commission of Maryland

ORDERED: (1) That the revised schedules of electric, gas and steam rates filed with the Commission on June 19, 1975, by Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, be, and the same are hereby, suspended for a period of not more than 120 days from July 19, 1975.

(2) That proceedings as to the reasonableness of said revisions of electric, gas and steam rates hereinbefore suspended be, and the same are hereby, instituted by the Commission.

(3) That parties, who can demonstrate sufficient interest and desire to produce direct evidence, requesting Leave to Intervene by Counsel in this proceeding must file through such Counsel (40 copies of such Petition with the Commission, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201, by no later than the close of business on Monday, July 7, 1975.

(4) That a prehearing conference be, and it is hereby, set before the Commission on Wednesday, July 9, 1975, at 10:00 o'clock, AM., in the office of the Commission, Room 901, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201.

(5) That additional hearings in the service area of the Company, providing an opportunity for the general public to present comments to the Commission on the application for revisions in its electric, gas and steam rates, will be scheduled on the dates and at the times and locations to be hereafter fixed by the Commission, and that the schedule of such additional hearings will be published when and as ordered by the Commission at a future date.

(6) That the Office of People's Counsel will participate in this proceeding on behalf of the general public.

PROVIDED, Baltimore Gas and Electric Company cause a copy of this Order to be published in at least three newspapers of general circulation in the Baltimore metropolitan area and in at least one daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation in each county in the service area of the Company at least one time in each newspaper in the week beginning on June 23, 1975, and at least one time in each newspaper in the week beginning on June 30, 1975.

INVITATION FOR BIDS
The Housing Authority of Baltimore City will received sealed bids in duplicate for the rehabilitation of 1001 Boland Avenue, 2030 E. Fayette Street, and 2050 E. Fayette Street until 3:00 p.m. Daylight Savings Time on July 16, 1975 in the office of the Chief of Finance and Accounting, Room 445, Saratoga Street Municipal Building, 727 East Saratoga Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Proposed forms of contract documents, including plans, if any, and Technical Specifications, are on file and may be examined and obtained by persons who have been prequalified by Bid Department, at the office of the Housing Authority of Baltimore City, Construction and Buildings Inspection, Room 730, Saratoga Street Municipal Building, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish satisfactory performance and payment bonds within 10 days after the date of the letter of notification of award of the contract.

Attention is called to the provisions for equal employment opportunity, and that payment at not less than the prevailing salaries and wages as set forth in the Specifications must be paid on this project.

Kraft hosts marketing conference

WASHINGTON — Kraft Foods marketing and sales management personnel met here with black broadcasters and publishers to discuss methods of marketing and selling to the black consumer.

Arthur Fletcher, former Associates, pointed out to the group the value of working toward an open society in which minorities, including blacks and women, have an increased opportunity for growth and employment.

He suggested that this is only a step toward achieving an integrated society — still probably many years away.

C. R. LeMaster Sr., vice president of sales and sales operations, retailers, "We intend to learn more about selling to the black consumer and to share that knowledge with you."

Kraft says it has developed some background data about blacks on which the company's present program is based, and is embarking on new research studies to aid in further understanding subtle differences in black consumer preferences.

For example, the firm said, research is indicating that among blacks there are definite flavor preferences for particular types of cheese.

As other differences in grocery buying patterns are identified, black outlets can look forward to more assistance from Kraft in helping them to meet shoppers' needs officials said.

During the meeting the company presented its national marketing program directed to the black community.

They announced plans for advertising in Washington, Baltimore and Richmond and outlined other efforts directed toward contributing to sales movement in outlets with a high concentration of black under-secretary of labor, utives from Washington, and some 65 grocery executives from Baltimore and Richmond were among guests.

It was the second regional meeting of the group.

Fletcher, now president of Arthur A. Fletcher and different approach to handling the probate process.

Associate Dean Laurence M. Katz of the University of Maryland School of Law is director of the Maryland probate project. The Maryland State Bar Association is serving as an advisory committee to the study. Maryland was chosen because of its relatively new probate law, passed in 1970, which consolidates and modernizes all phases of the probate process for the entire state.

Probate study underway

The first nationwide study on probate practices is being conducted by the American Bar Foundation and the American Bar Association. Probate is the process of transferring a person's property following his death.

The study is being conducted in six states: Maryland, Minnesota, Massachusetts, California, Florida and Texas. These states were chosen because they each represent a different approach to handling the probate process.

shoppers.

Kraft is planning similar discussions in other U. S. metropolitan areas with a high concentration of blacks.

These meetings, including one already held in Detroit, are being organized by C. Roy Jackson of C. Roy Jackson Associates, Inc.

Each forum will bring together company, media and grocery trade executives to explore the possibilities of reaching black consumers more effectively.
