MRS. STREETS CHORUS GIRLS SET TOGO

If you're a pretty dancer, come on, join the chorus

Mrs. Estelle Price Steel was a magazine cover girl and popular dancer in "Shuffle Along" on Broadway in 1952.

That was the era of the happy-go-lucky "gold-digger" and the beauteous chorus girls who were said to be by the news media "the lovlies who sweet-talked sugar daddies out of fur coats and diamonds.

Few person knew that there were chorus girls like Mrs. Street, a Richmond, Va. society girl Elsie Street and helps run both businesses.

However, Mrs. Street, Manhattan's Playhouse and School of the Theatre and a graduate of Chicago's Roosevelt College.

In possession of all the charm of a well-bred lady, she wash pursuing a medical career, se was in the chorus line at Atlantic City's Paradise Club at the same time Lena Horne was in the limelight.

* * *

Today, she is the wife of Baltimore night club owner and bail bondsman, Elsie Street and helps run both businesses.

* * *

Mother of three daughters, Jannine, 17; Valerie, 16 and Kim, 12, Mrs. Steel is daughter of the late A.D. Price Jr. who owned Richmond's oldest funeral establishment. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Mahin, is a resident of Montclair, N.J.

Mrs Street is presently looking for more beauties to join the chorus line and make the big lights.

Auditions will be held this Saturday, July 12, at 2 p.m. at 4227 York Road. Call 532-6284 for further information Dancers with a modern dance background or ballet preferred but if you have talent and are pretty — COME ON!

Union Trust robbed Monday

(UPI) — Two bandits robbed a downtown branch of the Union Trust Co. Monday, making off with an undetermined amount of cash, police said.

While one of the bandits stayed outside as a lookout, the second, his hand clutched in his coat pocket as if to conceal a weapon, went into the bank and handed a teller a brown paper bag and a note announcing the holdup.

Police said the teller filled the bag with money and the two bandits fled on foot.

There were 10 employes and 10 customers in the bank at the time and most didn't realize a holdup was taking place, police said.

Neither holdup man produced a weapon and there were no injuries, police said.

Miss Pittman movie at Pratt

Described as "the fiffest movie ever made for American television," and one of the most profound and deeply moving experiences in the history of film, "The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman" has been widely acclaimed by movie critics as well as the general public.

The 110-minute color production with Cicely Tyson in the title role will be shown in a 16mm, large-screen version at the Hollins-Payson branch of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, 31 south Payson St. on Wednesday, July 16, at 5:30 p.m.

Admission to the showing is free. The public is cordially invited.

'Bay-Bay' slain on Diamond St.

Funeral services for James Edward Gamble, 34, are scheduled today (Friday) at noon at the Marshall Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

The West Baltimore man was slain July 5 at 1:30 p.m. in what police reports describe as one of a series of fighting incidents between him and his sister.

According to homicide investigators Miss Jorone White, the sister, who shared an apartment with the dead man has been arrested been charged with his death. She is being held in the city jail without bail.

Quoting the victim's mother, Mrs. Mozzelle White, police state on a former occasion in a fight between the two Mr. Gamble was stabbed in the throat by the sister.

* * *

Police records show Mr. Gamble's bleeding body was discovered by her 15-year-old niece who told police she stumbled upon the body when she stopped by her uncle's house from a trip to downtown to say hello. Mr. Gamble lived in 300 block Diamond St.

Mr. Gamble who was known to friends as "Bay-Bay" was pronounced dead on the scene by investigating officers. He had been stabbed once in the chest.

Mrs. Willie Mae Quince, 700 block W. Fayette St., sister of the dead man, told detectives the victim's sister, Miss Jorone White, affectionately called "Pie" by close friends and relatives, had visited her house about 1 p.m. and that "Pie" looked very "dirty and messy."

When she asked "Pie" where she was coming from, "Pie" told her she had spent the night with their mother. A check with the mother proved the statement not to be true. Police also quote Mrs. White as saying she had not seen Miss White in two days.

* * *

Mrs. White also reportedly told them Mr. Gamble and "Pie" had been in several fights recently and that on one occasion Mr. Gamble's throat had been slashed. The two were last seen fighting in the 200 block N. Pine St., near a bar on July 4.

In addition to his mother, and two two sisters, Mr. Gamble is also survived by three other sisters: Mrs. Macy Barnes, Mrs. Hattie Williams, Miss Rosezelle White and a brother, Larry White.

When you know how to use the new long distance rates, talk is cheap.

There are some things that take only a minute to say. Happy birthday. Hello. I miss you.

And now when you take just a minute, you also save.

Because now with the new *interstate rates, if you dial direct, you're charged for just the minute or two you actually use. Instead of the first three, like before.

What it means to you is this:

During the day you can call all the way to Los Angeles, talk for a minute, and pay just 56¢.

Talk for two minutes, and it's just 96¢.

Or save even more by calling at night or most of the weekend.

Then one minute is only 22¢. Each additional minute, only 16¢.

When everything else seems to be costing you more, you can still save.

Just keep this coupon handy, take a minute, and dial direct.
