
AT WATKINS GLEN — Benny Scott, No. 1 team driver for Black American Racers, is at Watkins Glen, N.Y., awaiting the weekend competition in the Super Vee Gold Cup series. Scott, considered the most advanced black in race driving, says he is concentrating on the 1977 season when he is determined to be the first black contender — and winner — in the famed Indianapolis 500.

Colts to open Goucher drill

New head coach Ted Marchibroda will welcome Baltimore Colt rookies and 2 veteran players tomorrow (Saturday) to the club's new training camp at Goucher College in Towson, Maryland. The remainder of the squad will report July 19.

"I'm looking forward to the opening of camp," says Marchibroda. "I feel we've made progress since January when I took over. We've acquired some fine veteran players in George Kunz, Ed George and Herb Mul-key and our draft was excellent with Ken Huff the best lineman in collegiate football in 1974, heading the list. I'm now anxious to see what we can do on the field."

Joining the Colt rookies and first-year players will be quarterbacks Bert Jones, Marty Domres and Bill Troup; David Lee and placekicker Toni Linhart; centers Kien Mendenhall and Dan Ecl; Mike Barnes, who is being switched from defensive end to defensive tackle; and a number fo second-year players.

* * *

Three of the Colts top draft choices will not join the team until August 2. Huff, Mike Washington, and Steve Joachim have been named to the squad of the College All-Stars for their game against the Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers in Chicago, August 1.

Hard running fullback Roosevelt Leaks of Texas, is expected, however.

"I can sense a feeling of optimism with this team," says Marchibroda. "When we had our defensive backs, linebackers and offensive linemen in earlier this spring for an orientation session, they all were enthusiastic and worked very hard during the two days they were here.

"We've worked during most of the off-season with the quarterbacks; they've absorbed the system well and are anxious to get to camp. So, I think as a team we're approaching this season with spirit and optimism."

Fewer blacks 'star' choices

Seven black players, fewer than at any time in the last 22 years, have been selected as starters in next week's Major League All-Star Game at Milwaukee.

The same number opened the 1953 contest at Cincinnati. Since then All-Star lineups have included as many as 14 starters.

Four blacks—second baseman Rod Carew of Minnesota, shortstop Bert Campaneris and outfielder Reggie Jackson of Oakland, and outfielder Bobby Bonds of the New York Yankees—were voted to the American League starting team.

Three—second baseman Joe Morgan of Cincinnati, and outfielders Jim Wynn of Los Angeles and Lou Brock of St. Louis—were picked by the fans as National League starters.

Vida Blue of Oakland was named by AL manager Alvin Dark to the pitching staff for the Tuesday night tilt.

Ashe catches Connors on Grand Prix list

BOSTON (UPI)—Arthur Ashe's Wimbledon victory moved him into a fourth place tie with Jimmy Connors in the Commercial Union Grand Prix of Tennis standings.

Ashe's 120 points for last Saturday's big win over Connors gave him a total of 140, which also ties him with Mexico's Raul Ramirez and Australia's Tony Roche.

Guillermo vilas of Argentina, who picked up 30 points for reaching the Wimbledon quarterfinals, remained in first place with 260 points. Spain's Manuel Orantes Was second with 205 points while Sweden's Bjorn Borg, also a quarter-finalist at Wimbledon, was third with 170 points.

Jim Dent 54th in PGA's top 100

Jim Dent's failures in the Western and Milwaukee Open tournaments caused him to drop eight places from 46th to 54th on the list of 100 top golf money winners.

Dent is credited in the latest figures with $29,486 in earnings. Lee Elder, 91st last week, moved up to 85th as a result of cashing at Milwaukee. Lee has won $16,083.

O's set tryouts for youngsters

The Orioles have scheduled open tryout camps in the mid-Atlantic area under the supervision of regional scout Dick Bowie. Included in the schedule is the make-up date for the Hagerstown tryout camp which had originally been slated for June 27 but which was postponed due to rain.

The Hagerstown tryout is slated tomorrow (Saturday) at 9:30 a.m., at the Hagerstown Municipal Stadium.

Bowie and his staff will be at Owen Stadium, Bluefield, W. Va., next Saturday (19th) at 9:30 and Memorial Stadium here July 24.

Players should bring their own uniforms, gloves, and spikes to the tryouts, and American Legion players must bring written permission from their coach or post commander to participate.

Also, players that have just completed their sophomore or junior years in high school and college undergraduates are urged to attend even though they are not immediately eligible for the free agent draft.

Morgan coach to Dartmouth

HANOVER, N.H. — John W. Townsend, a member of the Morgan State College football coaching staff for the past two years, has been named defensive line coach at Dartmouth College.

Townsend, 29, will assume his new duties immediately and fills a position created earlier this spring when Drew Tallman, a member of the Dartmouth staff since 1971, became business manager for athletics at the college.

Townsend grew up in Chicago, Ill., and graduated from Morehouse College in 1970. He then was a graduate assistant working with the defense at Illinois State University while completing study toward his masters degree.

He joined coach Nate Taylor's staff at Morgan in 1973 and during two seasons there Townsend worked with the linebackers.

While studying at Morehouse, Townsend worked as a recreation supervisor for the City of Atlanta and also was an elementary school teacher. He also has been an instructor in the National Summer Youth Sports Program in Baltimore while at Morgan State.

Centennial Methodist receives silver set

Centennial Methodist Church recently received a gift of a silver set presented by retired Rev. Basha P. Jordan and Mrs. Jordan and members of the Jordan family. The event came at the close of the Sunday morning services.

Mrs. Jordan reveals that the silver service had been discarded in the trash. She states she retrieved it, had it resilvered and polished and decided that it should become the property of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Jordan Sr. was at one time pastor of Centennial. He retired from active ministry in 1954 after 44 years in service to the Methodist church.

The silver was accepted for the church by the Rev. Joseph W. Carroll, pastor.

Rev. Thomas is installed as 3rd new Psalmist pastor

The New Psalmist Baptist Church, 1300 W. North Ave. has installed the Rev. Walter S. Thomas as its third pastor.

A graduate of Baltimore Poly, the Rev. Mr. Thomas has earned a BS degree from the University of Maryland-College Park. He is completing requirements for the degree of Master's of Divinity from Howard University, and has done work for a Ph.d at the University of Maryland.

The installation sermon was given by the Rev. H. A. Carter, minister of New Shiloh. Rev. William Rivers, minister of Zion Baptist Church read the Charge to the Minister.

The Charge to the Church was read by the Rev. R. Moses Williams, minister of Zion Baptist Church.

Words of Welcome and a presentation of the word were given by Rev. William Rivers, Dean of the Chapel of Howard University, and Rev. J. Deotis Roberts, Prof. Theology, Howard School of Religion.

Mt. Pleasant pastor honored at celebration

Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, 1801 E. Preston St., celebrated the fifth anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. Clifford M. Johnson recently.

Deacon Willie Williams presided at the 11 a.m. service and Rev. C.J. Williams read the scripture.

Sister L. Shannon read the announcements and the Rev. A. Marble gave altar prayer.

Dr. M. C. Southreland, president, Virginnia Theological Seminary and College conferred an honorary doctorate degree on the Rev. Mr. Johnson and also gave the main sermon.

* * *

Deacon Williams of the anniversary commmittee had the following to say of the Rev. Mr. Johnson.

"Today we honor Pastor Johnson, one whom God has placed in our midst as shepherd-one whom we love and respect-one who is dedicated to the cause of Christ.

For the past five years he has been our Pastor, Teacher, Counselor and friend. By the grace of God, he has led and is still endeavoring to rid us to higher heights in Christ Jesus. For this we are grateful.

"We thank and praise God for the leadership He has given through Pastor Johnson and look to the future with hope and a determination to do greater works in kingdom building.

"Many thanks to Dr. Southerland and Dr. King for the very fine spiritual uplift we have experienced ready in this Fifth Anniversary of our Pastor.

"We also thank the officers, cihoirs, auxiliaries and all the members for their cooperation in these services. Special thanks to Sister Hazel Williams, Sister Kathryn Kinsler and Brother A. Carolton Freeman who have enhanced the services with music."

Rev. William King delivered a sermon at the 3:30 p.m. service and Trustee B. Silver read the Scripture.

Trustees are: Robert E. Johnson, Advil Shannon, Frederick Brown, John Brce, Willie Spruill, Ben Slver and John Suber.
