Old-fashioned fish fry

"One of the goals of the National Marine Fisheries Services is to develop and maintain helathy commercial and recreational fishing.

"As populations increase and more food is required, Americans must work together to enlarge and protect our valuable fisheries," says Robert W. Schoning, director, National Marine Fisheries Service.

Americans have traditionally rallied together whenever there is a mutual goal. Neighbors frequently get together for fun and friendship. Block parties are becoming more and more the "in" thing to do, and the two recipes following were designed for just such an occasion.

Why not block off a section of your street, join with good neighbors, and feast together for a bicentennial party? Easy Oven-Fried Seafood and Beer Batter-Fried Fish are ideal for such a gathering because they are easily prepared, delightful to eat, and moderate in cost.

Easy Oven-Fried Seafood
8 pounds ocean perch, cod, pollock, flounder, petrale sole, Dover sole, or other fish fillets, fresh or frozen
1 tablespoon salt
2 cups milk
1 quart toasted dry bread crumbs
1 cup cooking oil

Thaw fillets if frozen. Cut into serving-size portions. Add salt to milk. Dip fillets in milk, then roll in crumbs. Place in a single layer in shallow well-greased baking pans, skin side down. Drizzle oil over fish. Bake in an extremely hot oven, 500 degrees F., 10 to 15 minutes or until fish is browned and flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Makes 25 servings.

Olive it up with sauces

Lend a new flavor dimension to that picnic perennial — the hamburger.

Any of these sauces, flavored and colored with pimiento-stuffed olives, is great not only for hamburgers but for grilled steaks, chicken or any number of picnic or barbecue meats. They are simple to make and pack for a cross-country jaunt or across the yard to the outdoor grill.

Those olives that are not sliced into the sauce use as a colorful, flavorful garnish for the grilled steak or hamburger. The slightly salty tang of pimiento-stuffed olives is a perfect complement for the flavor of grilled meats, fish or poultry.

Olive Butter for Steak
(Makes about ½ cup)
¼ cup butter, softened
one third cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
Dash garlic powder

Beat butter until fluffy. Add olives and garlic; beat until blended. Place a heaping tablespoonful of olive butter in center of 4 grilled hamburgers or individual steaks or spread butter over center of one large broiled steak, for the final few seconds of grilling or broiling.

Olive Diablo Butter
(Makes about 1 cup)
½ cup softened butter or margarine
½ cup finely chopped onion
¼ cup finely chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
one third cup prepared Dijon-type mustard
2 tablespoons prepared horseradish

Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter. Add onion and cook 5 minutes. Beat into remaining butter with rest of ingredients. Serve with meat as desired.

Olive Sour Cream Sauce
(Makes about 1 and one thirds cups)
1 cup dairy sour cream
one third cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
2 canned green chili peppers drained and chopped
¼ teaspoon salt

Mix together sour cream, olives, chili peppers and salt. Chill. Serve with grilled hamburgers, beef or ham steak, as desired.

least $4,000 to cover the cost of renovations to the area church designated for the Day Care Center.

There have already been several fund-raising activities. These include a bingo party, bake sale, raffle and tupperware party. A crab feast is planned for Sunday, August 17, and the American Federation of Government Employees Local 223 will lend their support to a 50-50 raffle scheduled for August 29. To help finance the centers opening operations, the Local previously contributed $10,000.

The Employee Activities Association agreed to sell merchandise for the center free of charge. The Credit Union in the Woodlawn complex arranged to donate $3,000 worth of its advertising fund to new equipment and toys for the center.

Additional information about the Day Care Center can be secured by contacting Mrs. Gladys Parrish at the center between 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. or calling committee members: Katherine Laurence, 594-3446; Beverly Mosley, 594-3116; Inell Moore, 594-1146 or Bill Obreicht, Equal Employment Opportunity Specialist at the Social Security Administration.

Rev. Rodger Reid, host pastor and the Rev. O. J. Hayman, D.C., presiding Elder.

From a lovely printed program by the committee we highlighted the following: The splendid welcome by the host pastor along with his "Echos Du Ciel" Choir, composed of youngsters including the young organist who was about 13 years old, but could really ring it out. Next was the dynamic sermon delivered by the Rev. David L. Carter of Ebenezer AME Church, Hagerstown, using John 1:16 as scripture from which the subject "Sin" was taken. The ministers of the district presented the presiding Elder a plaque. The above named choir was given a standing ovation for their wonderful renditions of spiritual hymns, motioned by the Rev. J. C. Barnes of Randallstown.

• • •

Rev Barnes was selected by the presiding Elder as chairman of the committee to assist the presiding Elder. Others on the committee were the Rev. I. M. Gray, the Rev. Roger Reid, the Rev. Ira Cutler and the Rev. J. M. Harvin.

The Roland Howard was elected secretary and Mrs. Brown, asst. secretary. Walter W. E. Hill Sr. was called to and appointed, "The Conference Reporter."

The order of business followed and concluded with the serving of the Holy Communion. Following the dinner were the conference committees reports, appointment of special committees, workshops for clergy and laymen. Following supper, was the 'Missionary Night In White.'

Our sick: Mrs. Mertina Blocker, Bon Secours Hospital.

To the resident of Mt. Winans in particular we trust that you listened to Channel 13 last week to hear our own greatly admired resident Mrs. Elizabeth Fletcher on television stating her views on yoking the elderly.

The Trio at Faith Tabernacle Church on Patapsco Ave. is receiving a warm ovation for their wonderful renditions of hymns. The threesome consists of Mrs. Rosalyn Collins, Rodney Walls and Vernon Stubblefield, soloists and organist.

A Garland Theatre trip is planned for the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc. on September 14, Mrs. Margaret Spencer is chairman.
