

1843.

FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 339. forty-two and eighteen hundred and forty-three, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of June, eighteen hundred and forty-five; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to postpone the payment of any State taxes by the said Whiteford, beyond the periods now fixed by law.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 338.

Passed March 9, 1844. An act for recording the courses and distances of the public roads in Harford county.

Clerk to record courses and distances.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the commissioners of Harford county, to record in a well bound book the courses and distances, and bounds and descriptions of any new public road hereafter opened by said commissioners, and also the courses and distances, bounds and description of every alteration in the location of an old public road, and the book in which the same is recorded shall be furnished by the said commissioners at the expense of the county, and such an alphabet shall be made to said records as will facilitate the finding of the courses of any particular road.

CHAPTER 339.

Passed March 9, 1844. An act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, prohibiting any money being drawn from the Treasury of the State, but in consequence of appropriations made by law.

Appropriation by law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no money shall be drawn from the Treasury of this State, but in consequence of appropriations made by law.

When confirmed to be part of constitution.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly, at its first session after the next election of delegates to the General Assembly, then this act and the amendment to the Constitution therein contained, shall constitute and be valid as a part of said Constitution and Form of Government to all intents and purposes, and every thing therein contained, repugnant to this act be repealed and abolished.