Absentee ballots due Sept. 1
Registration for the Primary Election closed Aug. 11.
Frank McQuade, chief clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, said that some 12,821 people registered during July and August.
This brings to 390,000 the number of registered voters in the city.
* * *
McQuade said that registration is "light" since there is no gubernatorial race.
He cited the lack of excitement generated in the local election by candidates as contributing to the "light registration."
Deadline for making application for absentee ballots is Sept. 1.
* * *
Voters who have an emergency on Election Day may send an agent to the Board of Supervisors of Elections. Gay and Fayette, to pick up voting materials.
The agent must take the ballot to the person wishing to vote and then return it in person to the Board.
