

elected thereto shall so determine by yeas and nays, and in addition the two Houses by joint and similar rule may further regulate the right to introduce bills during this period; nor shall any bill become a law until it be read on three different days of the session in each House, unless two-thirds of the members elected to the House where such bill is pending shall so determine by yeas and nays, and no bill shall be read a third time until it shall have been actually engrossed or printed for a third reading.

If the Budget Bill shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature [three] seven days before the expiration of [its] the regular session, the Governor [may, and it] shall [be his duty to] issue a proclamation extending the session for some further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill; but no matter other than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this new proposed Constitutional amendment be and is hereby placed on the ballot at the general election to be held in November, 1970, as a substitute for and in lieu of Chapter 788 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1969, the original proposed Constitutional amendment, and the original proposed Constitutional amendment shall not be placed on the ballot at such time.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the withdrawal and recall of the original proposed Constitutional amendment as set forth in Section 1, and the repeal of the original proposed Constitutional amendment as set forth in Section 2, and the substitution of the proposed Constitutional amendment as set forth in Section 4, are ineffective, for any reason whatsoever, with the result that Chapter 788 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1969, the original proposed Constitutional amendment must be submitted to the voters at the general election to be held in November of 1970, both the original proposed Constitutional amendment and the new proposed Constitutional amendment shall be put on the ballot at the general election in November of 1970, as alternate measures to be voted on by the people, but in the absence of such a judicial determination only the new proposed Constitutional amendment shall be put on the ballot.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if both proposed Constitutional amendments are submitted to the voters at the general election to be held in November of 1970, pursuant to Section 5, the new proposed Constitutional amendment shall prevail over the original proposed Constitutional amendment if both are ratified by the voters, without regard to the respective margins by which each of the Constitutional amendments is ratified; but if only one or the other of the Constitutional amendments is ratified, the Constitutional amendment which is approved shall be fully effective.
