

22-90.

【The Supreme Bench may, in its discretion, require any and all of said probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees so assigned to work in the Probation Department of the Supreme Bench to give a bond with satisfactory surety in a penal sum to be fixed by the Supreme Bench, conditioned for the faithful accounting and discharge of duty, said bond to run to the State of Maryland as the obligee therein; the premiums for said bonds to be fixed as an expense of the Probation Department and not required to be paid by the appointee so appointed. Suits on such bonds when directed by the Supreme Bench to be instituted shall be instituted and prosecuted by the City Solicitor of Baltimore City, and all moneys recovered thereon shall be for the use of the Supreme Bench for the Probation Department thereof, and sums recovered thereon shall be paid out under its orders. All fees to the Clerk and Sheriff and costs and expenses required or necessary and proper to be paid for the prosecution of any suit on such bond shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.】

22-91.

【The duties of the probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees in carrying out the provisions of this sub-heading in said department shall be prescribed by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, with power in said Supreme Bench from time to time to change, alter and amend the same, and to increase or decrease the character of duties imposed upon each probation worker or clerical assistant or other employees in said department. No probation worker or person engaged in the work of the department shall make any investigation, as herein provided, without the previous order of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City or any member thereof.】

22-92.

Nothing in this sub-heading contained shall be construed to prevent any Judge of the Supreme Bench in suspending sentence and placing on probation or paroling any person accused of crime either before or after conviction or plea of guilty or nolo contendere in the custody of or under the supervision of any person or agency other than 【the Probation Department of Baltimore City】 a State or local governmental agency.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.
