

11. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority, annually to appoint a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and to perform such other duties as may be assigned him by said commissioners, or a majority of them, and for this purpose he is hereby vested with the same power and authority as any constable may now have under the laws of this State.

12. Said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to straighten and widen old streets, and to lay out and grade new ones, when in their discretion the same may be necessary; and they shall have full power to provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred by widening or opening the streets aforesaid, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of said town, or upon the property of persons benefited thereby.

13. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the corporation hereby created to issue any device, token, note, certificate or evidence of debt to be used as currency, and the General Assembly reserves the right to amend or repeal this charter when the same shall be deemed advisable.

14. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

In force from March 21, 1865.

END OF LOCAL LAWS.