Chamberlains celebrate

By Michele L. McRae
Reflections Starr Writer

The Mac Chamberlains (Malcolm and Mae) repeated their vows and hosted members of their wedding party and friends at a 25th wedding anniversary celebration on Saturday at their St. Luke's Lane home.

The lawn was aglow with beautiful people who gathered at poolside and under the canopy where an abundance of sumptuous dishes were served, and then on to another section of the spacious grounds for fellowship. Even though the day was overcast, the weatherman was kind enough to let the sun seep through following the ceremony and in time for the lawn festivities.

The couple repeated their vows at the Epworth Methodist Chapel with the Rev. Dr. Asbury Smith officiating and 14 of their original wedding party in attendance.

For the big day, Mrs. Chamberlain was pretty in a gown of imported matte jersey in orange at the ceremony. Later, at her home she received guests in a soft toned elegant mint green pleated chiffon pant-dress with matching shoes and a belt of silver.

Original wedding party attendants present were: Norma Smith, matron of honor; Betty Williams, Alice Holiday, Blanche Taylor, Elizabeth Hazel and Asalee Portee.

Best man, Edward Slater; Theodore Elliott, Edward Fitzgerald, Arthur Harris, Chester France and James Parker, ushers.

Flower girls were Wendy Robinson and Carolyn Wade.

Out-of-towners

In Baltimore for the anniversary celebration of the Chamberlains were: Mrs. Audrey Broadnax, Mr. and Mrs. John Bush, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Fernada Smith, Chambersburg, La.; Charles Valle, Atlantic Highlands, N.J.

From Silver Spring, Md. were: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks, Mrs. Oliver J. Byrd.

Washington, D.C. residents in the area were: Mr. and Mrs. Elbe Bettis, Mr. and Mrs. James Caul, Mrs. Doris Hanford, Mrs. Ursula Hill, Mrs. Arabella Gray, Howard Howell, Mrs. Marita Pyles.

Others included: Mrs. Monette Jackson, West Hyattsville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valle, Arnold, Md.

Murphys honor parents

Early in January, Nora M. Etheridge conceived the idea to have a "tribute" to the elder members of the Murphy Family. After many committee meetings, the "idea" grew to become "A Family Affair," which was held recently at a Dogwood Rd. hall.

The guests dined and danced to the music of Sherman Lewis and his Pyramids. During intermission, Ernest Murphy read an original poem by Delores M. Murphy Powell, a tribute to the honorees.

Her poem expressed the concerned feeling of love which overpowered the times when the children had to be disciplined and spoken to harshly. There were words of hop that this night would be a memory that would last for years to come.

As the host, Ernest Murphy, introduced the honorees, Beverly Murphy Hemphill and Lorene Murphy presented them silver trays engraved with "TO OUR PARENTS . . . JULY 5, 1975." Children of parents who were not present accepted their gifts.

Honored

Honorees present were: Dorothy Buster, Penelope Holley, Maude and Henry James, Alice Jones, Rosalee Johnson, Mary Lewis, Claudia Murphy, Gracie Murphy, Susie Murphy, Gertha Smith, Leroy Murphy, Roberta and Floyd Stovall, and Sarah West.

Honorees unable to attend were: Mary Franklin, Evelyn and Amos Murray, Martha and I. E. Highsmith, Hattie Wilkerson, Hattie Murphy, Nannie Faulkner, Jesse Faulkner, Alberta Watkins, Fannie Stokes, Ella Woody, Mary Williams, Bennie Holeman, Came Stovall and Sue Crowder.

Tears of joy were brought to the eyes of Nora Murphy Etheridge, when the family presented her with a sterling silver charm bracelet as a token to commemorate the night's affair and a reward for the beautiful job she had done as chairman of the affair.

Out-of-towners

Lottie Richardson, Phila., Pa.; Ulysses and LaForest Faulkner, Walter Crawley, Mildred Ogletree from Wash., D.C.

Daniel and Janie Wilkerson, Christopher C. Williams, Charlene Williams, Jeanell Sanford, Fannie, Jeffery, Gregory and Lawrence Louis, Harold Wilkerson, Florine Hudgins, John and Elnora Harris, Rosa Johnson, Celia Fuller, all of New York City.

Mertina and Nathaniel Outing, Rosa Johnson, from Morristown, N.J.; Charlie and Irene Masten from Neptune, N.J.; William Crowder, Jersey City, N.J.

Ella Owen, Pamela and Wayne Garland, South Boston, Va.

Gwendolyn Ragland from Virgilina, Va.; Tessie and Joe Rogers, George and Margaret Owens from Richmond, Va.

Ring-a-ling has been the constant sound of the telephone from teen-agers around the Baltimore metropolitan area in regards to Hal Jackson's Miss U.S. Talented Teen Pageant which was held in New York recently at New York's Town Hall.

Sixteen-year-old Renee Crutcher, a native of Atlanta, won the coveted title of "Miss U.S. Talented Teen 1975."

Miss Crutcher did a spirited rendition of the song, "Purlie" from the Tony Award winning musical "Purlie." She is an honor student at Northside High Performing Arts School in Atlanta, where she reigns as Miss Northside High. She plans to become an actress.

Teens, check out Tuesday's Afro for more pictures and a continuation of the complete coverage of Hal Jackson's National Pageant.

The Howard Research and Development Company (HRD) hosted an evening with Frank Sinatra at the Merriweather Post Pavilion last week. Invitations were extended privately to select building firm executives building homes in Columbia.

Cocktails were served in the Board Room Terrace of the House Building to HRD's special guests and later dinner. Guests boarded a special chartered bus, just a skip and a hop to the Merriweather Post Pavilion where guests took a private entrance which led right to the front of the auditorium. The Pavilion was filled to capacity to hear the recording star; even the outside ground was filled. The internationally famous "Mr. Blue Eyes" included in his repertoire oldies and modern songs composed by Jimmy Van Hauser and popular Stevie Wonder.

It was and enjoyable evening — only wish it could have been more of us among the crowded mob.

N.A.T.R.A. Lives was the theme of the National Association of Television and Radio Artists Convention when it convened at the Holton Hotel last week.

The convention opened with a Miss N.A.T.R.A. Pageant on Tuesday night where 19 beautiful young ladies vied for the title of Miss N.A.T.R.A..

The criteria for the young ladies wasn't an easy task. They had to be 18 through 24, never married, talented in singing, playing a musical instrument, drama, and most of all they must have been figure controlled.

Nineteen-year-old Miss Deborah Jacobs, Baltimore, won the title of Miss N.A.T.R.A. '75. She sang the popular song, "The Way We Were."

She will receive a one-

CATONSVILLE NOTES

Vacation time coming to end

By Liz Williams

Vacation is coming to an end and all of us will soon be back at the old routine. Our children will be returning to school and the tempo in our homes will have settled down a bit.

Best wishes to all of you who will return to school next week. Special good wishes for those of you who will be attending for the first time. I wish a good year for all of you.

* * *

Continue to send "thinking of you" or "get well" cards to these good neighbors: — Mrs. Ada Webb (Winters Lane); Sylvia (Lesie) Gundy (Old Frederick Road); Russell Randall (Veterans Hospital — Loch Raven Blvd.) and Shirley Watkins, (Windsor Ave.)

Mary (Charles) Adams entertained Inez Reynolds and Esther Winkler at her Waterloo Road home in Elliott City.

The Mount Olive Beneficial Association No. 5 held a family style dinner several Sundays ago on the spacious lawn of Mrs. Amy Warden. Name the food and it was there.

Imagine, eating all the home-grown vegetables that you could. Belive it or not, these ladies started as early as four in the morning to prepare it. Mrs. Warden co-chaired the event with Mrs. Elizabeth Frazier. Officers of the club are: grand president, Mrs. Lessie Saunders; president, Mrs. Lula Peoples, and secretary, Mrs. J. B. Miles.

* * *

People on the move: Mrs Warden (mentioned above) attended the Elks' convention in Chicago.

Winging in from the West Coast are, Dot (Reginald) Matthews, her sister-in-law, Nellie (Lump) Wright, and Nellie's two daughters, Verna Mae Borshey and Shirley Parker.

They visited Las Vegas, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

In L.A., they were guests of Nellie's granddaughter, Wanda Williams.

While the girls were away, Reggie's mother was his house guest here in Catonsville. Her name is Mrs. Maggie (Ma Maggie) Matthews, a very gracious lady and quite young at heart.

Sometime ago I told you about John Highsmith who appeared in a gospel concert at Grace AME Church. He could be described as "God's Messenger in Song."

* * *

I promised Mr. Highsmith that I wanted to let the community know about his background because those of us who heard him sing that Sunday can truthfully say that he is one of the best.

Here it is: — He was born in Winston, S.C. He came to Baltimore, with his parents, at the age of nine. During his school years he sang on many programs won in many talent contests.

Before John began to sing gospel music, he performed in the entertainment world which did not please him or his mother. At one time he went to his employer and told him that he wanted to make spiritual record. The man said "No"; that he could not make money that way.

At the age of 20, John joined the Whitestone Baptist Church. The late Rev. Mr. Matthews of Mt Hebron Baptist Church once said "When Highsmith sings one can almost see Heaven open."

Miss Pauline Wells Lewis calls him "Baltimoore's Number 1" Baritone. Mr. Highsmith's voice teacher was the late Mrs. Sula Dean.

His faithful and talented accompanist, Mrs. Susie Hill, who is an artist in her own right, has unrelentingly given her assistance for fourteen years.

Mr. Highsmith's family includes his wife Mrs. Pearl Highsmith, his mother Mrs. Francis Reddick, and sister Miss Estrelita Reddick. One of John's favorite hymns is "If I Can Help Somebody."

Special note: — It was so nice to see an old neighbor from Calhoun St. at the family dinner — Mrs. Essie Hood. Mrs. Hood is a nurse and has always been a good friend and neighbor to all Even though Essie is a city gal, she has many friends in the Catonsville community. Visit us more often, Essie.

To all readers: — Have a safe and an enjoyable Labor Day weekend and try to remember to help somebody wherever you may be.
