

qualify him to discharge the duties of his office before me.

25. Whenever the board of police commissioners for the city of Baltimore, or the sheriff of any county, shall call out any portion of the militia to aid in preventing threatened disorder or opposition to the laws, or in suppressing riot or disorder on election days, or at any other times, as provided in section eight hundred and thirteen, of article four, code of public local laws, as amended by act of assembly of eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, chapter three hundred and sixty-seven, said military force shall be deemed to be on detached service, while under the orders of the said board or sheriff, and the commanding officer thereof shall not be subject to the orders of any superior officer whatsoever, except the commander-in-chief.

Militia, when called out by board of police or sheriff, subject to their orders.

26. All arms and equipments not issued to the militia, and now on hand, shall be stored in the state armories at Annapolis and Easton, and the commander-in-chief is hereby authorized to have said armories put in proper condition for the safe-keeping and storage of said arms and equipments; provided, the cost thereof does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars; and the accounts thereof shall be audited and settled at the treasury, as is provided for contracts and expenditures for military purposes in section thirteen of this act.

Armories at Annapolis and Easton.

Proviso.

27. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars per annum, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, until the next meeting of the legislature, out of any money not otherwise appropriated in the treasury of the state, to enable the governor, as commander-in-chief, to carry into effect the provisions of this article, and he is hereby authorized to apply the said funds as will, in his judgment, best accomplish the purposes of this act; the salaries of the adjutant general and the armories at Easton and Frederick to be included in and paid out of the aforesaid sum; and the comptroller of the treasury shall, in his report to the general Appropriation.