Mrs. 'Pat' Jones visits hometown

The McDonald's of Cedardale Rd. were happy to entertain Mrs. Joanna 'Pat' Jones of Tampa, during her recent visit to the Monumental City. Pat is the niece of Florence Nutter McDonald.

While in Baltimore, Mrs. Jones was also the guest of many of her Morgan classmates.

One of her favorite instructors while attending Morgan, Dr. Hayward Harrison was simply estatic to have her visit with him.

He accomplishments as a Morgan graduate made him quite proud.

For seven years Mrs. Jones taught Marine Biology at the Plant Senior High School, Tampa. For two years she was Human Relations Director at the same school. At present she is Director, Project Leap Tampa Urban League, the first woman to hold this position.

She delighted him further by sharing the Ruby J. Gainer Human Relations Award with him that she received at South Atlantic Regional Convention in Atlanta of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Mrs. Jones is basileus of her sorority's chapter in Tampa and has been for the past seven years.

Pat and her husband, Charles G. Jones are the parents of three sons, Tyrone, Chuck, and Mike. Her two younger sons are vacationing in Nanticoke, Md. with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus (Iolia Nutter) Williams.

Wyche reunion

Visitors were in the city from Piscataway, N.J. recently for the gala fourth annual reunion of the Wyche family.

For many of the participants it was a weekend affair, with an all day party at Sandy Point State Park.

From New Jersey came Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wyche and sons, Derek, Terrell and Aaron.

Baltimore relatives included, Andrew L. Wyches, Michael L. Wyches, Merrilyn Wyches, Charlotte M. Capers, Kingsley Dingle, Rosa Dingle, Crystal Dingle, James Dingle; Lottie Bell, Arnolds Johns, Verla Johns, Janice Aiken Torres and Edwin Torres.

Children included, Michael D. Wyche, Beverly Wyche, Karl Wyche, Jerrold Wyche, Vanessa Wyche, Tavia Capers, Brian Dingle and Gilbert Page.

Rodgers Reunion

On a recent weekend the annual family reunion of the children of the late Robert and Susanna Rodgers Holmes of Hartsville, S.C. was held this weekend. With the annual picnic held on Saturday at Greenbrier State Park, on Sunday worship service was held at the Cherry Hill United Methodist Church with the Rev. James Wooten, pastor.

A lovely old-fashioned dinner was served buffet style at the home of the host this year, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Chavis and daughters of Baltimore and New York.

Attending were: Ulyssee Holmes and children, grandchildren of Hartsville, S.C., Charleston, S.C., Connecticut, Ohio, and Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wingate, Durham, N.C. and grandchildren of California; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Robinson, Hartsville, S.C. and children and grandchildren of Myrtle Beach, S.C., Hartsville, S.C, Baltimore, Md., and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Bullock and children and grandchildren of Washington, D.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Holmes children and grandchildren of Baltimore and Annapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Holmes, children and grandchildren of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Holmes, children and grandchildren, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Annie Mae Alford and children of Hampton, Va.; and Boston Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Banks and sons of Baltimore and a 86-year-old cousin of New York City, and a host of friends which came to a total of over 100 guests.

CATONSVILLE NOTES

School starts again; send get well wishes

By Liz Williams
AFRO Correspondent

Send "get well" cards to Mr. Raymond Smith (Winters Lane) and to Robert (Mamie) Williams, who is at St. Agnes Hospital. Mr. Williams also lives on Winter's Lane.

This columnist's daughter, Debbie, along with Carmeilta Hayes returned to Clark College in Atlanta. There were many students in the Catonsville community who returned to college or who are entering for the first time. I hope to be able to let you know about them next week

M. and Mrs. Edward (Audrey) Coe of Old Frederick Road have returned from Tuskegee, Ala., where they enrolled their son, Edward Jr.. They had a beautiful week long trip and were very impressed with the school.

Last week I received a phone call from Martha Lambert's office telling me that Jennifer L. Murphy is the first black employee in the Admission Office at Catonsville Community College.

I had the pleasure of talking to Jennifer via phone and during the course of our conversation I found that there is another black employee working in the Records office. Jennifer is a resident of Baltimore City and is a graduate of Eastern High School. Jennifer formerly worked at Morgan State University. She has been on the staff at Catonsville Community College for two years.

She is married to Maryland State Tropper Ronald Mr. Murphy who has been on the force for three years. Ronald works in the Greenbelt area and is a a graduate of the University of Maryland.

Our community should be proud of this fine couple. The best to the two of you for the great work that you are doing.

The Emma Williams Temple held a debutante reception of the Morning Star Baptist Church Hall in Catonsville on Saturday.

The four young ladies were presented in March at the Elks Tri-State debutante ball at the Lord Baltimore Hotel in Baltimore city.

The honorees were, Sharon Anderson, Karen Talbott, Jacquline Radcliffe, and Beverly Branch. There were about 100 guests at this lovely gathering.

Each honoree chose a pastel shade for her gown. Pink and white were used for the decor. All of the young ladies are June graduates from Catonsville Senior High School and will be entering college this fall.

The officers of the Elks are Exalted Ruler, Ernest McCormick; Daughter Ruler, Jessie Steward, and Amy Ward, State President. Mrs. Rosalee Hall served as Chaperone for the "debs."

Sympathy cards to the family of Gladys Lynch Ruford, a longtime Baltimorean. She lived here in Baltimore before moving to Los Angeles to join her sister, Mildred. There she married but returned to Baltimore after she lost her husband.

She is survived by her sister Mildred (Floyd) Mebane, and brother Charles (Gwendolyn) Lynch, and Leroy (Rubby) Lynch.

Cuff Note: Just Saturday, a week ago Gladys and other members of the family were at the airport to see Mil off to California. She had been here to attend her sorority convention, Iota Phi Lambda.

This past Saturday night the family phoned "Mil" to inform her Gladys death, and she had to return to Baltimore. "Mil" was accompanied by her husband, Floyd, and a very dear friend of Gladys, Mrs. Lucille Moreland.

Many may remember Mildred as the Douglass high School nurse. She married and moved to California where she continued to work in the health department until she retired recently.

Mil and the family can be reached at the Lochearn home of her brother, Charles (Buck) Lynch or at the home of her brother Leroy (Lee) Lynch at his Druid Hill Ave., home

Have a good week and please remember to always use that ever-ready smile and be sure to remember to help somebody, whoever it may be. You will have no regrets.

Columbia Capers

By Pinnie L. Ross

Summer vacation is over now, and parents have focused their attention to the opening of schools in various sections of the state.

So long, good-by, be a good girl, have a nice day will surely be the theme of the day for many parents who are sending their precious ones to school for the first time. Excited — I should say, more so than the child. Just relax, mothers, let them grow up, give them the opportunity to learn to be independent young ladies, and be sure to be at the bus stop on time for your child's return from school.

* * *

Just before the tots entered school today, they had a swell time with their old television friend, Mickey Mouse and his friends. The old-time favorite of the kids was in Columbia for nearly a week, commencing with a grand parade along Little Patuxent Parkway in downtown Columbia, followed by a performance of Mickey's Mouseketeers Club Meeting.

Who's the Leader of the Club that's made for you and me? Goofy and Pluto were among the live performers, strutting around, posing with the excited kids for pictures.

Columbia Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity is doing their thing. The newly organized club has a smashing program planned for 1975-76. They hosted a splash party last week held at Faulkner Ridge swimming pool.

The energetic members supplied all of the drinks for their wives — some brought food and some brought just plain snacks to munch on after a deep dive in the pool. To name a few deep 5-foot divers were: Yvonne Bronner, Hilda Wallace, Jerdine Jenkins; Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins are three-month newcomers to Columbia from "the Windy City, Chicago."

The first fund-raiser for the Kappa's will be a dinner theater social at the Garland Dinner Theater, Sunday night. Program chairman for the affair is Dr. Ernie Colvin. More about the affair in next week's column.

* * *

Columbians Dr. and Mrs. (Joanne) Richard Tyson are being kept extremely busy these days. I chatted with charming Mrs. Tyson a few days ago. What an interesting chat it happened to have been.

The Tysons direct the institute for Marriage Enrichment and Sexual Studies here in Columbia. Mrs. Tyson is a columnist for Essence magazine.

"Your Sexual Health" is the title. Any phase of sex you are confused about write a letter to the editor and you'll get your answer. She said she receives over a hundred letters per month, and she tries her best to answer each writer's problem. The Tysons have numerous speaking engagements. They try to fulfill as many as they possibly can.

By all means check out Mrs. Tyson's column in next month's Essence; It's something else.

Community services at YW

The public is invited to participate in service programs, including adult education classes, lunchsons for the elderly and counseling, offered at the YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association), 1912 Madison Ave. The programs are free or at low cost.

In the adult education ("Way Up") program, adults, 16 and over, work toward their Maryland ninth grade certificate or high school diploma. Scheduled Monday through Wednesday, 9 am to 11 am, classes in reading and basic mathematics are taught by an instructor from the Baltimore City Department of Education. Classes are free; YWCA membership is encouraged. Recessed for the summer, the program reconvenes in September, 1975.

"Eating Together," a senior citizens' luncheon program operated by the YWCA and the Baltimore City Department of Nutrition, serves lunches, Monday through Friday, 11:30 am to 1:30 pm, to adults, 62 years and over, at a cost of 25c per meal. This program is continuous.

Counseling by representatives from the Family and Children's Society is available on request and is offered continuous.

A day care program, the Hedrick Beals Day Care Center, operated by the Baltimore City Department of Social Services, is open for children three to five years of age, Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Charges are assessed according to income. This program is continuous.

For information about any of the above programs, the number to call is 669-1881.

AACC offers symposium

A series of ten lectures on plants will be offered free of charge to the public by Anne Arundel Community College in its science lecture hall on Thursday evenings at 8, beginning Sept. 18.

Topics to be explored will include the great gardens of American, mini gardens, principals of landscaping, shrubs and trees, insects and diseases, medicinal plants and rock gardening.

Information is available at 647-7100, ext. 327.

Cultural arts for pre-teens

Ballet, acting, piano playing tap dancing are offered in the Pre-teen Cultural Arts Program sponsored by the YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association), 1912 Madison Ave., beginning October 4. Ballet classes for children, 5-12 years of age are held Saturday mornings at 1912 Madison Ave. at a cost of $45 per year for three ten week sessions, fall, winter and spring.

A fee of $2 yearly YWCA membership is required.

Also, piano classes are offered on Saturdays from 10 a.m. - noon, acting from noon to 1:30 p.m. and tap dancing from 1:30 — 2:30 p.m. Staggered programming permits a child to participate in many types of cultural experiences

Also, ballet classes are held on Mondays at 3 p.m. in public school 144, 1000 Wheeler Ave., and on Wednesdays at 3 p.m. in School 217, 1406 N. Ellamont St.

Class fees are low, partly because the YWCA receives support from the United Fund of Central Maryland.

Helps Shrink Swelling Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Due To Inflammation. Relieves Pain And Itch...
Gives prompt temporary relief from hemorrhoidal pain and itch in many cases.
When hemorrhoidal tissues swell, become inflamed and infected—it can be very painful for the sufferer. But doctors have found a remarkably successful medication which is so effective that it actually helps shrink swelling of such tissues. And it does more. In many cases, it also gives prompt relief for hours from the pain and itching in hemorrhoidal tissues.
This medication is obtainable without a prescription under the name—Preparation H®.
Tests by leading doctors on hundreds of patients in New York, Washington, D.C. and at a large medical center verified Preparation H gave similar successful results in many cases.
When you consider Preparation H offers so many benefits—it's no wonder millions of sufferers buy it each year to obtain this relief. See if it doesn't help you.
There's no other formula like Preparation H. Ointment or suppositories.
