Journalism for teachers

The College of Journalism of the University of Maryland will launch in the fall a program designed for teachers of journalism at the secondary and community college levels.

Dr. Regis L. Boyle, journalism instructor and adviser of the student newspaper at Walt Whitman High School, Bethesda, Md., will join the faculty as a visiting professor. Dr. Boyle has served as chairman of the summer session journalism department and as founder and director of the Journalism Institute for High School Students at America. She has also the Catholic University of been faculty adviser to student publications there.

A three-credit course in advising student publications will be scheduled for Tuesdays from 4 to 6:30 p.m. on the Maryland campus for first semester, to be followed second semester by legal and policy problems of student publications.

The first workshop providing credit for journalism teachers of Maryland, directed by Dr. Boyle, is scheduled for September 24-27 at the Donald-on-Brown Center in Port Deposit, Md. This course for inexperienced teachers is sponsored by the Baltimore Sunoapers and the Maryland - Delaware - D.C. Press Association.

Dr. Boyle will also serve as liaison with the Maryland Scholastic Press Association in inaugurating activities at the College of Journalism for secondary school journalists.

A program of teacher and student workshops will be offered by the College of Journalism in summer 1976. Mrs. Barbara Hines, M.S., president of the Maryland Scholastic Press Association and journalism adviser of Parkdale High School, Hyattsville, Md., will guide student workshops in school newspapers.

A salad boat that sails right into summer "Shrimp Salad Santa Cruz," is easy to prepare, delicious to eat. Dunk shrimps into dressing first, then eat the avocado boat itself. Crisp crackers or buttered French bread make a nice accompaniment for this luncheon salad.

Try a new salad toss

During this season's salad days, put all your ingredients in one bowl to create a salad that's great for meals on the go.

Everybody's favorite coleslaw has been translated into a new salad by home economists in The Kraft Kitchens with the addition of kidney beans, pickle relish, green onion slices and a garnish of green pepper rings. The flavor secret of the combination is in the unique tang of Kraft real mayonnaise.

The U.S.D.A. reports that cabbage is currently in good supply and of excellent quality. This fact makes coleslaw a doubly good choice for a summer salad as greater supply usually means lower prices.

For best results, mix the salad in advance so the ingredients are well chilled and the flavors have a chance to blend. For an outing, pack in an insulated container or carry to the picnic site in a cooler.

Suggested accompaniments to Kidney Bean Coleslaw are your favorite homestyle or carry-out fried chicken and chunks of crusty French bread. Or, if you'd like to try a new way of preparing chicken, follow Kraft's recipe for Crispy Parmesan Chicken. The baked chicken is delicious warm from the oven or refrigerated before serving. For dessert, bring a basket of fresh fruit and some cookies and celebrate summer salad days.

Kidney Bean Coleslaw
4 cups shredded cabbage
1 16-oz. can kidney beans, drained
1-3 cup sweet pickle relish
1-3 cup green onion slices
Kraft real mayonnaise
Green pepper rings

Combine cabbage, kidney beans, relish, onions and enough mayonnaise to moisten; toss lightly. Chill. Add additional mayonnaise before serving, if desired. Garnish with green pepper rings.
8 to 10 servings
*mayonnaise

Crispy Parmesan Chicken
2-2-1-2 to 3-lb. broiler fryers, cut up
2-3 cup (5-1-2 fl. oz. can) evaporated milk
1 cup corn flake crumbs
1 3-oz. can Kraft grated Parmesan cheese
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper

Dip chicken in evaporated milk; coat with combined crumbs, cheese and seasonings. Place in two 13-1-2 x 8-3-4-inch baking dishes. Bake at 350 degrees, 1 hour or until tender.
8 servings

Shrimp Salad Santa Cruz

Versatile and easy to do, "Shrimp Salad Santa Cruz" can be served as a salad or for pre-dinner nibbling. Half an avocado serves as the salad dressing boat, filled to the brim with a tangy dressing made with Salad Seasoning. The cheese base of this seasoning and its unusual mixture of seeds and seasonings gives the shrimp a special lilt. It's such a nice change from tomato base sauce.

As a salad, serve with crisp crackers or buttered French bread. If you serve it before dinner be sure to provide forks for the avocado.

Fresh Vegetable and Egg Salad
6 Sandwiches
12 slices whole wheat bread
Butter
8 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1 cup chopped fresh spinach
2-3 cup grated carrots
1-2 cup chopped celery
1-2 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
6 lettuce leaves

Butter bread. Combine all remaining ingredients except lettuce. Divide salad mixture on 6 slices of bread; spread evenly. Top with lettuce leaves and remaining bread slices, buttered side down.

YWCA Fall teen program

Common teen characteristics — a lack of self-confidence, embarassment in dealing with others, unsureness about abilities and uncertainty about choice of vocation — can be painful. YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association) classes and clubs are offered at 1912 Madison Ave. to help overcome uncertainties and move confidently into adulthood.

A drop-in center for teens will open Fri. Oct. 3, and will continue to be open throughout the school year on Fridays, 3 to 6 p.m. The center offers a place for teens to meet for informal conversation and to plan events for the weekend ahead.

On weekdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 3:30-5:30 p.m. a homework center will offer tutoring for teens and prepare teens to help them avoid the failures which are often crushing.

Monthly, on Saturdays, beginning in Oct., a record hop will provide a fun occasion. Time is 8-11 p.m.; admission, 50 cents.

A class in photography, taught by Hakim Sayyed, helps teens and adults, male or female, to develop an enjoyable and, possibly, lucrative skill. Photography as an art form — interpretive, penetrating, evocative — will be taught. A dark room is provided free. Scheduled from Oct. 3 to Dec. 6 Friday from 6:30-8:30 p.m. and Saturdays, 2-5 p.m., with lab hours by appointment, the course costs $30 for ten weeks.

In addition, African history will be offered for teens and adults as a workshop on Saturdays from Oct. 4 to Dec. 6 from 1-3 p.m. Leader will be Isaac Moreland, a speaker in the "Blacks in the Media Workshops" during the YWCA Black History month celebration, 1975.

Music workshons will be offered on Saturdays from 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

Clubs include a Big Sister Little Sister Club, meeting on Saturdays, Oct. 4 to Dec. 13, from 1-4 p.m. [illegible] a teen club, meeting Wednesdays, Oct. [illegible] from 4-6 p.m. Both are under the direction of Sarah Moreland.

Another teen club meets at Clifton Park Junior High School with Bernice Musgrove as advisor and a club meet at Hoyston Woods Junior High School with Betty Christmas as advisor. The clubs encourage the girls to develop leadership ability, self knowledge, positive values, and a healthy and enterprising capacity to arrange and enjoy social life. There are also social action thrusts and, in Dec. the clubs will arrange a money raising bazaar for the benefit of the Y Teen program.

A $2 yearly junior YWCA membership (for those 16 or under) or a $6 adult membership is necessary to participate in any YWCA programs.

For information or registration for any of the above activities, the number to call is 669-1181 the Madison Avenue YWCA.

MRS. EVELYN DOUGLASS

A woman behind her man

By Michele L. McRae
AFRO Staff Writer

"I met my husband when I became of age to vote and went to register. At that time John was already actively involved in politics.

Looking at John, I think he has fantastic capabilities and has a brilliant mind. I feel we can do anything together and go as far as we want to — as long as we do it together," says Mrs. Evelyn Douglass.

The saying goes, "There's a good woman behind every successful man," and as you can tell from her comments, Mrs. Evelyn Douglass is definitely the woman behind Mr. Delegate John W. Douglass. He is a candidate for comptroller of Baltimore City.

A very attractive, vivacious, outgoing and energetic person, Mrs. Douglass likes to be involved — especially in things that interest her husband.

An English major prodaute of Morgan State College and presently a student at Johns Hopkins University where she is a candidate for a master's degree in Administration, Mrs. Douglass is employed with the Social Service Administration.

Mrs. Douglass states that she is now so actively involved in the campaign of her husband that she has taken a leave of absence from her job.

Her campaign activities, to name a few include writing campaign literature, coordinating fund-raising activities, walking tours, block parties and making personal appearances with and for her husband.

Mrs. Douglass is herself involved in many community organization among which is the East Baltimore community Organization of which she is a board member.

In addition to those activities she models in many of the local fashion shows and has taught modeling techniques at Barbizon Modeling School.

Very confident of her husband's ability, Mrs. Douglass says, "Being very reserved and serious minded are pluses for my husband. He is sincere, dedicated and intelligent.

"Because of all these things, I think we're going to win this campaign. We have worked many long, hard hours. I think we can conquer the world if necessary."

Mrs. Douglass is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Archer of Baltimore and has been married to John for five years. They are members of Southern Baptist Church.
