

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 59. 1852, ch. 16, secs 5-6.

73. Where defendants reside in different counties or in a county and the city of Baltimore, the court, where any one of the defendants resides, shall have jurisdiction, and the bill or other proceedings may be filed or had in such court.

Ibid. sec. 60. 1840, ch. 109, sec. 6. 1841, ch. 303. 1870, ch. 450, sec. 2.

74. In case of the lands of any deceased person which may lie in more than one county, or in the city of Baltimore, and one or more counties, becoming liable to the payment of his debts, or where lands have been or may be mortgaged which lie in more than one county or in the city of Baltimore and one or more counties, then all such lands may be sold under a decree of the court of that county or of the city of Baltimore, in which the proceedings to sell the same shall be first commenced, and in such case a copy of the bill, decree, and trustee's report of the sale shall be sent to the clerks of the proper courts where such lands may respectively lie, to be docketed, indexed and recorded, as provided in section 72.

Johnson v. Johnson, 52 Md. 668.

Ibid sec. 61. 1787, ch. 30. 1852, ch. 16.

75. Where all the defendants are non-residents, the bill shall be filed in the court of the county or city where the property to be affected by such bill, or some part thereof, lies, or shall be at the time the suit is instituted.

Ibid. sec. 62. 1785, ch. 72, sec. 13. 1841, ch. 303. 1852, ch. 16.

76. Where a decree has been made for the specific performance of a contract, or the conveyance of land, or for the sale of land, the court passing such decree shall have the same power to execute said decree, or compel a compliance therewith in cases where the land or property lies, or parties reside in different counties from that in which the decree was passed, as if the said parties resided, or land or property lay in the county where the decree was passed.

Ibid. sec. 64. 1840, ch. 109, sec. 4.

77. Whenever any cause is ready for hearing, and the parties, their solicitors or guardians, shall sign an agreement and file it
