

teenth day of June; and if any person shall be found guilty by any justice of the peace of said county of a violation of this section, he shall be adjudged to pay a fine of not less than five dollars for each and every squirrel killed, for the first offence; and upon failure or refusal of the party to pay said fine he shall be committed to the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days; and for each and every such offence, after the first, such party shall be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars for each squirrel killed; and upon failure or refusal to pay said fine he shall be committed to the county jail for a period not less than twenty days; the right of appeal to the circuit court, however, shall not be denied to any person adjudged guilty.

1884, ch. 198.

60. One-half of such fine so collected shall go to the informer, and the other one-half shall be turned over to the general school fund of the county.

BRIDGES.

1880, ch. 47.

61. It shall not be lawful for any person to affix any flood-gate, water-rack, fence or obstruction of any kind to the free flow of water to any county bridge in Frederick county, or to place any flood-gate, water-rack, fence or obstruction of any kind to the free flow of water against any such bridge; and the road supervisors of said county are authorized and required to remove any flood-gate, water-rack, fence or obstruction of any kind to the free flow of water, that is, or may be affixed to or placed against any county bridge in said county.

BULLET PLAYING.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 38.

62. If any person shall be found playing at bullets in the streets of Middletown he shall be liable to presentment or indictment therefor in the circuit court for said county, and on conviction shall be fined, in the discretion of the court, not exceeding twenty dollars.