

tend at his said office at all times, (Sundays excepted,) in person or by deputy, for the transaction of business, under the penalty of forty dollars for each month he shall fail to comply herewith, to be recovered by indictment in the circuit court, for the use of the county.

1886, ch. 376.

217. He shall be allowed forty cents a day and no more for keeping and boarding each prisoner committed to the jail of said county.

TAXES.

1876, ch. 300.

218. All persons and incorporated institutions in Montgomery county, that shall pay their county taxes on or before the first day of September of the year for which they were levied, shall be entitled to a deduction of five per centum on the amount of said taxes; all that shall pay the same on or before the first day of October of said year, shall be entitled to a deduction of four per centum, and all that shall pay the same on or before the first day of November of said year, shall be entitled to a deduction of three per centum; and at the time of receiving said taxes the collector of said county, shall make the deduction aforesaid, and note the same upon the receipts given to the persons or incorporated institutions so paying.

Ibid.

219. All county taxes collected under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be used exclusively in the payment of the county levies for the year in which the same may be placed in the hands of the collectors, and one-half of each yearly levy shall be due and payable to the holders thereof on or before the first day of October, and the other half on or before the first day of January of each year.