PUBLIC NOTICE
BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND
ROUTE 140 & 26
VICINITY MAP

Interested parties are hereby advised that the Department of Public Works of Baltimore County is planning to widen Reisterstown Road from Liberty Road to a point approximately 450 feet south of Liberty Road for the purpose of providing channelization for this approach to the intersection.
The design, as proposed, will involve the installation of curb and gutter and sidewalk along both sides of Reisterstown Road within the limits stated above. The width of the proposed improvements will vary with a maximum width of 42 feet between curbs within a maximum planned 80 foot width right of way. Additional improvements to the intersection will involve paint striping of the approaches to the intersection to provide for channelization and the installation of a new traffic signal display. The purpose of this improvement is to increase the traffic handling capacity of the intersection as well as reduce the number of accidents that have occurred at the intersection.
The construction of this project will be financed 75 per cent by Federal Aid funds and 25 per cent by Baltimore County Capital Improvement funds.
The purpose of this notice is to inform the general public of this proposed project. The plans for the proposed project are available for public inspection, by individuals and representatives of public agencies who desire information, during the normal working hours 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. in the Baltimore County Bureau of Engineering, County Office Building, Room 301, 111 West Chesapeake Avenue, Towson, Maryland 21204.
The State and Federal Highway Administrators have approved a categorical action statement for this project.

Mrs. Marshall, 80, attributes long life to 'faith in God'

"I was reared in a Christian home with a Christian mother and father and those Christian principles have been with me all my life.

"I've always had the Lord on my side. Faith in God has brought me through everything."

Mrs. Cyrus W. Marshall Sr., an energetic 80-year-old, was telling the AFRO to what she attributes her long, useful life.

The widow of a longtime Baltimore city school teacher, Mrs. Marshall resides at 2543 McCulloh St., where she has lived for almost 50 years.

In her own right, she is distinguished for her beauty, and has earned the reputation as a courageous fighter for equal rights, as an eloquent speaker who has dared stand up and speak out on any occasion when there was injustice.

When the AFRO talked with Mrs. Marshall this week she was beaming about the family reunion held in her honor Tuesday at the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church where she has been a member for 45 years.

"It was supposed to be a surprise, but it leaked out. I always told the children if they ever gave anything for me I wanted all the family, because they have cousins who don't know each other."

* * *

Relatives came from as far west as Alaska and up and down the East Coast. A nephew, U.S. Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, sent greetings.

'Aunt Liz,' as she is called by some, called the combination birthday-family reunion, "just so beautiful."

She added: "Some of the cousins didn't know each other and they just got reacquainted.

* * *

"One of the nephews said to me, 'Aunt Liz, most people don't get together until they die. I'm so glad we had this.'"

Present for the event were the Hillens, Marshalls, Woodlands, names familiar in the growth of Baltimore.

For her big day, Mrs. Marshall was beautiful in an elegant long, aqua-marine gown, Sequins, dyed to match the dress, covered the entire bodice.

Her white hair was stylishly coiffed.

Born in White Hall, Md., Mrs. Marshall is the former Elizabeth Hillen, daughter of Granville and Nellie Billingsley
